The Registrant is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2003 (the "10-Q") within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense. The reasons causing the Registrant's inability to file timely are beyond its control and could not be eliminated by the Registrant without unreasonable effort or expense.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2003 were $12.8 million compared to $10.9 million in the comparable period of 2002, an increase of $1.9 million or 17.4%. The Company had a net loss of $3.1 million in the three months ended March 31, 2003 compared to net income of $0.007 million in the comparable period of 2002. Management attributes the magnitude of the loss primarily to extremely poor yields on meat products due to the start-up of the new plant, and to a material increase in Indirect and General and Administrative expenses, offset in part by labor efficiencies due to the usage of the automated equipment.
