Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously disclosed, on February 14, 2017, Cigna Corporation (the "Company") notified Anthem, Inc. ("Anthem") that it had terminated the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement"), dated as of July 23, 2015, by and among the Company, Anthem and a direct wholly owned subsidiary of Anthem. The Company then commenced litigation in the Delaware Court of Chancery (the "Chancery Court") against Anthem seeking damages and declaratory judgment that the Company's termination of the Merger Agreement is lawful, among other claims.

On February 14, 2017, Anthem commenced litigation against the Company in the Chancery Court seeking a temporary restraining order to enjoin the Company from terminating and from taking any action contrary to the terms of the Merger Agreement, specific performance compelling Cigna to comply with the Merger Agreement and damages.

On February 15, 2017, the Chancery Court granted Anthem's motion for a temporary restraining order and issued an order temporarily enjoining the Company from terminating the Merger Agreement. This is not a decision on the merits of the case, but rather a procedural order to ensure irrevocable actions do not take place before the Chancery Court's substantive review of the issues. Cigna respects the Chancery Court's decision and will continue to abide by terms of the Merger Agreement until the Chancery Court further reviews the case. A hearing will be scheduled the week of April 10 and we look forward to more fully briefing the Chancery Court at that time.
