Such shares had been pledged, on a non-recourse basis, to the Lenders to secure a loan made by them to DeVlieg-Bullard, Inc. ("DBI"). Such loan was in default, and the Lenders elected to exercise their rights as secured parties under the governing pledge agreement with the reporting person. The reporting person did not receive any payment from the Lenders for the transfer of such shares. The reporting person may have a claim against DBI for his loss under the pledge, but any such claim is believed to have no value in view of the liquidating bankruptcy of DBI.

None of subparts (a) through (j) of Item 4 is applicable, except that (i) with respect to subpart (a), shares of the Issuer's Common Stock will be issuable to Stanwich Financial Services, Corp. ("SFSC") if SFSC exercises the conversion rights described in Item 5, below and (ii) with respect to subpart (a), the reporting person may buy and sell shares of Common Stock in the future. The reporting person has pledged 1,002,800 additional shares of Common Stock to Sovereign Bank to secure the repayment of a loan. Such loan is past due. Sovereign Bank may sell or require him to sell some or all of such pledged shares over time and apply the proceeds therefrom to the repayment of such loan.

The reporting person in the President, director and the owner of a majority of the outstanding shares of the voting stock of SPI. Because of these relationships, for purposes of Regulation 13D, the reporting may be deemed to be the beneficial owner of the shares of Common Stock and other securities owned by SFSC and SPI.

In addition, SFSC is the holder of seven partially convertible subordinated notes (the "1997 CONVERTIBLE NOTES") in the aggregate principal amount of $15,000,000 issued by the Issuer to SFSC as of June 12, 1997. SFSC has the right to convert an aggregate of $3,000,000 of the principal of the 1997 Convertible Notes into 252,949 shares of Common Stock (a conversion price of $11.86 per share) on June 12, 2004 (the maturity date of such notes) or, if earlier, the date on which such notes are prepaid. The shares subject to the conversion rights under the 1997 Convertible Notes are not included in the Beneficially Owned Shares because such rights are not exercisable within 60 dates of the date of this Amendment.
