THE COMPANY

We operate in the United States automotive aftermarket industry, which includes replacement parts (excluding tires), accessories, maintenance items, batteries and automotive chemicals for cars and light trucks (pick-ups, vans, minivans and sport utility vehicles).

We are the second largest specialty retailer of automotive parts, accessories and maintenance items to do-it-yourself, or DIY, customers in the United States, based on store count and sales. We are the largest specialty retailer of automotive products in the majority of the states in which we currently operate, based on store count. At April 19, 2003, we had 2,024 stores operating under the Advance Auto Parts trade name in 37 states in the Northeastern, Southeastern and Midwestern regions of the United States. In addition, as of that date, we operated 89 stores under the Advance Discount Auto Parts trade name and 306 stores under the Discount Auto Parts trade name in Florida, and operated 37 stores under the Western Auto trade name located primarily in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

Our combined operations are conducted in two operating segments, retail and wholesale. The retail segment consists of our retail operations operating under the trade names Advance Auto Parts, Advance Discount Auto Parts and Discount Auto Parts in the United States and Western Auto primarily in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. Our wholesale segment includes a wholesale distribution network, which provides distribution services of automotive parts, accessories and specialty items to approximately 390 independently owned dealer stores in 43 states primarily operating under the Western Auto trade name.

In addition to our DIY business, we serve do-it-for-me, or DIFM, customers via sales to commercial accounts. Sales to DIFM customers represented approximately 15% of our retail customers in 2002 and consisted of sales to both walk-in commercial customers and sales delivered to our commercial customers' places of business, including independent garages, service stations and auto dealers. At April 19, 2003, we had 1,467 stores participating in our commercial delivery programs.

Our principal executive offices are located at 5673 Airport Road, Roanoke, Virginia 24012, and our telephone number is (540) 362-4911. Our website is located at www.advanceautoparts.com. Information contained on our website is not part of this prospectus.

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the shares offered by this prospectus. All proceeds from the sale of the shares offered hereby will be for the account of the selling stockholders.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

The following table sets forth the number of shares owned by the selling stockholders at May 21, 2003 and the maximum number of shares the selling stockholders are entitled to sell from time to time under this prospectus. However, such selling stockholders are under no obligation to sell all or any portion of such shares, nor are the selling stockholders obligated to sell any such shares immediately under this prospectus. Because the selling stockholders may sell all or some of their shares of common stock offered hereby, we cannot be certain as to the number of shares of common stock that will be held by the selling stockholders upon termination of any offering made under this prospectus. Information with respect to beneficial ownership is based on information furnished to us by the selling stockholders included in the table or included in filings with the SEC. PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The shares of common stock covered by this prospectus may be offered and sold from time to time in one or more transactions by the selling stockholders. As used in this prospectus, the term "selling stockholders" includes pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors-in-interest selling shares received from the selling stockholders as pledgors, donors, borrowers or in connection with other non-sale-related transfers after the date of this prospectus. This prospectus may also be used by transferees of the selling stockholders, including broker-dealers or other transferees who borrow or purchase the shares to settle or close out short sales of shares of common stock. The shares may be sold at the market price for our common stock prevailing at the time of sale, a price related to the prevailing market price, a negotiated price or such other price as the selling stockholders determine from time to time. The shares may be sold by one or more methods of sale, including, without limitation, the following methods:

market transactions in accordance with the rules of the New York Stock Exchange or any other available markets or exchanges;

ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchasers;

block trades in which the broker-dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the shares of common stock as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker-dealer or other person as principal, and resale by such broker-dealer for its own account pursuant to this prospectus;

privately negotiated transactions;

a combination of any of the above transactions; and any other method permitted by applicable law.

In addition, the selling stockholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers in connection with distributions of the shares or otherwise. In such transactions, broker-dealers or other financial institutions may engage in short sales of the shares in the course of hedging the positions they assume with the selling stockholders. The selling stockholders may also sell shares short and redeliver the shares to close out such short positions. The selling stockholders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers which require the delivery of the shares to the broker-dealer. The broker-dealer may then resell or otherwise transfer such shares pursuant to this prospectus. The selling stockholders may also pledge or loan the shares to a broker-dealer. The broker-dealer may sell the shares so loaned, or upon a default the broker-dealer may sell the pledged shares pursuant to this prospectus.

In effecting sales, broker-dealers or agents engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other broker-dealers or agents to participate in such sales. Broker-dealers or agents may receive compensation in the form of commissions, discounts or concessions from the selling stockholders. Broker-dealers or agents may also receive compensation from the purchasers of the shares for whom they act as agents or to whom they sell as principals, or both. We will pay all expenses incident to the offering and sale of the shares to the public other than any commissions and discounts of dealers or agents and any transfer taxes, which will be paid by the selling stockholders.

Edgar Filing: ADVANCE AUTO PARTS INC - Form S-3

The selling stockholders and any broker-dealer or agent who participates with the selling stockholders in the distribution of such shares may be deemed to be underwriters under the Securities Act, and any discount, commission or concession they receive may be an underwriting discount or commission under the Securities Act.

In order to comply with the securities laws of some states, if applicable, the shares of common stock will be sold in such jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states the shares of common stock may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and is complied with.

Table of Contents

We have advised the selling stockholders that the anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 may apply to sales of shares in the market and to the activities of the selling stockholders and their affiliates. In addition, we will make copies of this prospectus available to the selling stockholders and we have informed them of the need for delivery of copies of this prospectus to purchasers at or prior to the time of any sale of the shares offered by this prospectus.

The selling stockholders may indemnify any broker-dealer that participates in transactions involving the sale of the shares against some liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

Upon a selling stockholder notifying us that any material arrangement has been entered into with a broker-dealer for the sale of shares of common stock offered hereby through a block trade, special offering, exchange distribution or secondary distribution or a purchase by a broker or dealer, a supplement to this prospectus will be filed, if required, pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act, disclosing the name of each such selling stockholder and of any participating broker-dealer, the number of shares offered, and the other terms of the offering, including the selling price, the commissions paid or discounts or concessions allowed to such broker-dealer, or any other facts material to the transaction. In addition, upon a selling stockholder notifying us that a donee, pledgee, transferee or successor-in-interest intends to sell more than 500 shares, a supplement to this prospectus will be filed.

Additional information related to the selling stockholders and plan of distribution may be provided in one or more prospectus supplements.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The registrant's certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide for indemnification of its officers and directors to the fullest extent permitted by law. Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL") provides that a Delaware corporation has the power to eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director for violations of the director's fiduciary duty, except (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) pursuant to Section 174 of the DGCL (providing for liability of directors for unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock purchases or redemptions), or (iv) for any transaction from which a director derived an improper personal benefit.

Section 145 of the DGCL provides that a corporation may indemnify any persons, including officers and directors, who are, or are threatened to be made, parties to any threatened, pending or completed legal action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of such corporation), by reason of the fact that such person was a director, officer, employee or agent of such corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such corporation or enterprise. The indemnity may include expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, provided he acted in such a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the corporation's best interests and, for criminal proceedings, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. A Delaware corporation may indemnify officers and directors in an action by or in the right of the corporation under the same conditions, except that no indemnification is permitted without judicial approval if the officer or director is adjudged to be liable to the corporation. Where an officer or director is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action referred to above, the corporation must indemnify him against the expenses which such officer or director actually and reasonably incurred.

The registrant, as successor to Advance Holding Corporation, is a party to indemnification agreements with each of its directors (the form of which is filed as Exhibit 10.19 to the registrant's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 28, 2002, filed on March 27, 2003) which provide for indemnification by the registrant and its subsidiaries to the fullest extent permitted by law.

The registrant has also purchased insurance for its directors and officers against liabilities arising out of their service in their capacities as directors and officers of the registrant.

Item 17. Undertakings

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective Registration Statement; and

Edgar Filing: ADVANCE AUTO PARTS INC - Form S-3

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) do not apply if the Registration Statement is on Form S-3 or Form S-8, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(5) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
