Edgar Filing: ENOVA SYSTEMS INC - Form SC 13D/A

(d-e) On November 19, 2001, the SEC instituted public cease-and-desist proceedings against The State Bank of India ("SBI") and Citibank, N.A. ("Citibank"), a subsidiary of Citigroup, related to an unregistered offering of securities in the United States by SBI and Citibank. Citibank was found to have violated Sections 5(a) and (c) of the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act"), by offering and selling securities and was ordered to cease and desist, pursuant to Section 8A of the Securities Act, from committing or causing any violation and any future violation of Sections 5(a) and (c) of the Securities Act.

On December 3, 2002, Salomon Smith Barney Inc. ("Salomon Smith Barney"), now named Citigroup Global Markets, Inc. ("CGMI"), a subsidiary of Citigroup, was one of eight respondents to settle SEC, NYSE, and NASD charges of violations of the record-keeping requirements of Section 17(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act") and Rule 17a-4 thereunder during the period from 1999 to at least 2001. The SEC order found that, during all or part of the relevant period, each Respondent failed to preserve for three years, and/or to preserve in an accessible place for two years, electronic mail communications (including inter-office memoranda and communications) received and sent by its agents and employees that related to its business as a member of an exchange, broker or dealer. The SEC order also found that each of the respondents lacked adequate systems or procedures for the preservation of electronic mail communications. The SEC order required the respondents to cease and desist from committing or causing any violations and any future violations of Section 17(a) of the Exchange Act and Rule 17a-4 promulgated thereunder. Respondents were censured pursuant to Section 15(b)(4) of the Exchange Act. Each respondent was also required to pay the amount of $1,650,000, divided equally between the SEC, NASD, and NYSE.

On April 28, 2003, Salomon Smith Barney announced final agreements with the SEC, the NASD, the NYSE and the New York Attorney General (as lead state among the 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico) to resolve on a civil basis all their outstanding investigations into its research and initial public offering allocation and distribution practices. Salomon Smith Barney paid $300 million for retrospective relief, plus $25 million for investor education, and committed to spend $75 million to provide independent third-party research to its clients at no charge. Salomon Smith Barney adopted new policies and procedures to further ensure the independence of its research and addressed other issues identified in the course of the investigation. Salomon Smith Barney reached these final settlement agreements without admitting or denying any wrongdoing or liability. The settlements did not establish wrongdoing or liability for purposes of any other proceeding.

On July 28, 2003, Citigroup settled enforcement proceedings related to the manipulation of Enron's and Dynegy's financial statements. The Commission found that Citigroup knew or should have known that the acts or omissions described in the Order would contribute to Enron's and Dynegy's violations of Exchange Act Section 10(b) and Exchange Act Rule 10b-5. Consequently, Citigroup was found to be a cause of Enron's and Dynegy's violations within the meaning of Exchange Act Section 21C. Citigroup consented to an order to cease and desist from committing or causing any violation of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws, and agreed to pay $120 million as disgorgement, interest and penalty.

On March 23, 2005, the SEC entered an administrative and cease-and-desist order against CGMI. The SEC order found that CGMI willfully violated Section 17(a)(2) of the Securities Act and Rule 10b-10 promulgated under the Exchange Act. Specifically, the order found that there were two distinct disclosure failures by CGMI in the offer and sale of mutual fund shares to its customers. Based on these findings, the Order censured CGMI, required that CGMI cease and desist from committing or causing violations and future violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act and Exchange Act Rule 10b-10, and required that CGMI pay a $20 million civil money penalty.

In a related proceeding on March 22, 2005, the NASD accepted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver and Consent dated March 18, 2005 (the "AWC") that had been submitted by CGMI. Without admitting or denying the findings, CGMI accepted and consented, prior to a hearing and without an adjudication of any issue of law or fact, to the entry of findings by NASD. Based on its findings and with CGMI's consent, the NASD censured CGMI and fined it $6.25 million. In the AWC, CGMI also agreed to complete certain undertakings, including retaining an Independent Consultant, among other things, to conduct a comprehensive review of the completeness of its disclosures regarding the differences in mutual fund share classes and the policies and procedures relating to CGMI's recommendations to its customers of different class shares of mutual funds.

On May 31, 2005, the SEC entered an administrative cease-and-desist order finding that Smith Barney Fund Management LLC ("SBFM"), a subsidiary of Citigroup, and CGMI willfully violated Sections 206(1) and 206(2) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 ("Advisers Act") in connection with securing approval by the Boards of the Smith Barney family of mutual funds (the "Funds") of the appointment of a new, affiliated transfer agent. Specifically, the SEC Order found that SBFM and CGMI failed to disclose to the Boards a revenue guarantee associated with the new agreement or an offer made by the then-existing transfer agent to continue to perform its work at a discount. The SEC Order further found that SBFM and CGMI made other omissions and misrepresentations to the Boards in connection with the creation, operation, and compensation of the new arrangement. Based on these findings, the Order censured SBFM and CGMI, required that CGMI and SBFM cease and desist from committing or causing violations of Sections 206(1) & 206(2) of the Advisers Act, required that SBFM and CGMI disgorge, on a joint and several basis, $109 million plus prejudgment interest of $19.1 million, and required that SBFM pay an $80 million civil money penalty.

Other than as described above, during the last five years, none of the Reporting Persons or, to the best of the knowledge of the Reporting Persons, any of the persons listed on Schedule A attached hereto, has been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) or was a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction as a result of which such person was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws, or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

(f) Each of Citicorp International Finance, Citicorp Banking, Citicorp, Citigroup Holdings and Citigroup is a Delaware corporation. Except as otherwise indicated on Schedule A, to the best knowledge of each Reporting Person, each executive officer and director named in Schedule A to this Amendment No. 10 to the Schedule 13D is a citizen of the United States.
