PROXY STATEMENT
FOR THE 2012 ANNUAL MEETING OF THE STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON FEBRUARY 28, 2012

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Destiny Media Technologies Inc. (we , us , our and the Company) for use at the 2012 annual meeting of the stockholders of the Company (the Annual Meeting) to be held on February 28, 2012 at 10:00 a.m. (Pacific Time) in the Pacific Room at the Metropolitan Hotel located at 645 Howe Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada and at any adjournment thereof, for the purposes set forth in the preceding Notice of Annual Meeting.

This Proxy Statement, the Notice of Annual Meeting and the enclosed Form of Proxy are expected to be mailed to the Company's stockholders on or about January 6, 2012.

The Company does not expect that any matters other than those referred to in this Proxy Statement and the Notice of Annual Meeting will be brought before the Annual Meeting. However, if other matters are properly presented before the Annual Meeting, the persons named as proxy appointees will vote upon such matters in accordance with their best judgment. The grant of a proxy also will confer discretionary authority on the persons named as proxy appointees to vote in accordance with their best judgment on matters incidental to the conduct of the Annual Meeting.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE PROXY MATERIALS AND THE ANNUAL MEETING

Why am I receiving this Proxy Statement and proxy card?

You are receiving this Proxy Statement and proxy card because you are a stockholder of record as at the close of business on January 6, 2012, and are entitled to vote at this Annual Meeting. This Proxy Statement describes issues on which the Company would like you, as a stockholder, to vote. It provides information on these issues so that you can make an informed decision. You do not need to attend the Annual Meeting to vote your shares.

When you sign the proxy card you appoint Steve Vestergaard, Chief Executive Officer, President and a Director of the Company, and Fred Vandenberg, Chief Financial Officer, Corporate Secretary and Treasurer, as your representatives at the Annual Meeting. As your representatives, they will vote your shares at the Annual Meeting (or any adjournments or postponements) as you have instructed them on your proxy card. With proxy voting, your shares will be voted whether or not you attend the Annual Meeting. Even if you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, it is a good idea to complete, sign and return your proxy card in advance of the Annual Meeting, just in case your plans change.

If an issue comes up for vote at the Annual Meeting (or any adjournments or postponements) that is not described in this Proxy Statement, your representatives will vote your shares, under your proxy, at their discretion, subject to any limitations imposed by law.

Who is entitled to attend and vote at the Annual Meeting?

Only stockholders of the Company of record at the close of business on January 6, 2012 (the Record Date), will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Stockholders entitled to vote may do so by voting those shares at the Annual Meeting or by proxy.

What matters am I voting on?

You are being asked to vote on the following matters:

1. To elect to four members of the Company's Board of Directors to hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders or until their respective successors have been elected or qualified.
2. To ratify the appointment of BDO Canada LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending August 31, 2012.

The Company will also consider any other business that properly comes before the Annual Meeting.

How do I vote?

You have several voting options. You may vote by:

- Signing your proxy card and mailing it to the Company's legal counsel at the address on the proxy card;
- Signing and faxing your proxy card to the Company's legal counsel for proxy voting at the number provided on the proxy card; and
- Attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

If your shares are held in an account with a brokerage firm, bank, dealer, or other similar organization, then you are the beneficial owner of shares held in a street name and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by that organization. The organization holding your account is considered the stockholder of record for purposes of voting at the Annual Meeting. As a beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote the shares in your account. You are also invited to attend the Annual Meeting. However, since you are not the stockholder of record, you may not vote your shares in person at the Annual Meeting unless you request and obtain a valid proxy card from your broker, bank, or other nominee.

What if I share an address with another person and we received only one copy of the proxy materials?

The Company will only deliver one Proxy Statement to multiple stockholders sharing an address unless it has received contrary instructions from one or more of the stockholders. The Company will promptly deliver a separate copy of this Proxy Statement to a stockholder at a shared address to which a single copy of the document was delivered upon oral or written request to:

Destiny Media Technologies Inc.
Attention: Fred Vandenberg, Corporate Secretary
Suite 750, 650 West Georgia Street
Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada V6B 4N7

Stockholders may also address future requests for separate delivery of Proxy Statements and/or annual reports by contacting us at the address listed above.

What if I change my mind after I return my proxy?

You may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before the polls close at the Annual Meeting. You may do this by:

- (a) executing and delivering a written notice of revocation of proxy to the office of the Company's transfer agent below at any time before the taking of the vote at the Annual Meeting;

- (b) executing and delivering a later-dated proxy relating to the same shares to the office of the Company's transfer agent below at any time before taking of the vote at the Annual Meeting; or

- (c) attending the Annual Meeting in person and:
- (i) giving affirmative notice at the Annual Meeting of your intent to revoke their proxy; and
 - (ii) voting in person.

Any written revocation of proxy or subsequent later-dated proxy should be delivered to the offices of the Company's transfer agent as follows: Transfer Online, Inc., 512 SE Salmon Street, Portland, Oregon, USA 97214 Fax No. (503) 227-6874. Attendance at the Annual Meeting will not, by itself, revoke a stockholder's proxy without the giving of notice of an intent to revoke that proxy.

What constitutes a quorum?

In order to hold a valid meeting of the Company's stockholders, a quorum is equal to one-third of the shares of the Common Stock outstanding and must be represented at the meeting. These shares may be represented in person or represented by proxy.

Stockholders who abstain from voting on any or all proposals, but who are present at the Annual Meeting or represented at the Annual Meeting by a properly executed proxy will have their shares counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum. Broker non-votes will also be counted as present at the Annual Meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum. However, abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted either in favor or against any of the proposals brought before the Annual Meeting. A broker non-vote occurs when shares held by a broker for the account of a beneficial owner are not voted for or against a particular proposal because the broker has not received voting instructions from that beneficial owner and the broker does not have discretionary authority to vote those shares.

In the event that a quorum is not present at the Annual Meeting, or in the event that a quorum is present but sufficient votes to approve the proposal are not received, the persons named as proxies on the enclosed proxy card may propose one or more adjournments of the Annual Meeting to permit further solicitation of proxies. The persons named as proxies will vote upon such adjournment after consideration of all circumstances that may bear upon a decision to adjourn the Annual Meeting. Any business that might have been transacted at the Annual Meeting originally called may be transacted at any such adjourned session(s) at which a quorum is present. The Company will pay the costs of preparing and distributing to shareholders additional proxy materials, if required in connection with any adjournment. Any adjournment will require the affirmative vote of a majority of those securities represented at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy.

How are abstentions and broker non-votes treated?

Stockholders may vote for or against the proposals or they may abstain from voting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum at the Annual Meeting, but will not be counted as either in favor or against the proposals.

What vote is required to approve each item?

In order for a proposal to be approved, the number of votes cast at the Annual Meeting in favor of the proposal must be greater than the number of votes cast against the proposal. As of the Record Date, there were 50,487,577 shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Company's common stock represented at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy is required to approve the proposals for the Annual Meeting.

Will my shares be voted if I do not sign and return my proxy card?

If your shares are held through a brokerage account, your brokerage firm, under certain circumstances, may vote your shares.

If your shares are registered in your name, and you do not sign and return your proxy card, your shares will not be voted at the meeting.

Will I be entitled to appraisal rights under Colorado law?

Under Colorado law, the Company's stockholders are not entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the proposals.

Who pays for this proxy solicitation?

The Company will bear the entire costs of solicitation, including the preparation, assembly, printing, and mailing of this Proxy Statement, the proxy card, and any additional solicitation materials furnished to the stockholders. Copies of solicitation materials will be furnished to brokerage houses, fiduciaries, custodians holding shares in their names that are beneficially owned by others so that they may forward the solicitation material to such beneficial owners.

When are the stockholder proposals due for the 2012 Annual Meeting?

The deadline for submitting a stockholder proposal for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy for its 2013 annual meeting of stockholders pursuant to Rule 14a-8 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, (the Exchange Act) is September 8, 2012; provided, however, that in the event the Company hold its 2013 annual meeting more than 30 days before or after the one year anniversary date of the 2012 Annual Meeting, the Company will disclose the new deadline by which proxies must be received under Item 5 of the Company's earliest possible Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q or, if impracticable, by any means reasonably calculated to inform stockholders. In addition, stockholder proposals must otherwise comply with the requirements of Rule 14a-8 of the Exchange Act.

Any stockholders who wish to submit a proposal are encouraged to seek independent counsel about SEC requirements. The Company will not consider any proposals that do not meet the SEC requirements for submitting a proposal. Notices of intention to present proposals for the Company's next annual meeting should be delivered to Destiny Media Technologies Inc., Suite 750, 650 West Georgia Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada V6B 4N7, Attention: Fred Vandenberg, Corporate Secretary.

PROPOSAL NUMBER ONE ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Company's Board of Directors currently consists of four directors: Steve Vestergaard, Edward Kolic, Lawrence Langs and Yoshitaro Kumagai. At the Annual Meeting, shareholders will elect four directors to serve until the next annual meeting of shareholders and until their respective successors shall have been duly elected and qualified, or until their death, resignation or removal. Unless marked otherwise, proxies received will be voted FOR the election of the four nominees named below.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes present in person and represented by proxy and entitled to vote at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Shares represented by executed proxies will be voted, if authority to do so is not withheld, for the election of the nominees for director named above. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted as present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. If a quorum is present, the nominees for director receiving the highest number of votes will be elected as directors. Abstentions will have no effect on the vote. Broker non-votes are not expected to result from the vote on this proposal. In the event that any nominee should be unavailable for election as a result of an unexpected occurrence, such shares will be voted for the election of such substitute nominee as the Board may propose.

At the direction of the Board of Directors, this appointment is being presented to the stockholders for ratification or rejection at the Annual Meeting. CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Director Independence

The Company is listed on the TSX Venture Exchange, which requires the Company to have a minimum of two independent directors. Under the TSX Venture Exchange policy and Canadian National Instrument 52-110 Audit Committees (NI 52-110), which the Company is subject, an independent director is a director who has no direct or indirect material relationship with the Company. A material relationship is a relationship which could, in the view of the Board of Directors, reasonably interfere with the exercise of a director's independent judgment. Lawrence J. Langs, Edward Kolic and Yoshitaro Kumagai are independent directors of the Company, as aside from shares held by them, they have no ongoing interest or relationship with the Company other than serving as a director. Steven E. Vestergaard is not an independent director because of his position as the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer.

Meetings and Committees of the Board of Directors

During the fiscal year ended August 31, 2011, the Company's Board of Directors held two meetings and various matters were approved by consent resolution of the entire board and its audit committee had two meetings. All directors are expected to attend the Annual Meeting and their attendance is recorded in the minutes.

Audit Committee

The Company's audit committee consists of Steve Vestergaard, Chief Executive Officer of the Company, Edward Kolic and Yoshitaro Kumagai, two of which are independent. Management believes that the audit committee members are collectively capable of analyzing and evaluating the financial statements and understanding internal controls and procedures for financial reporting.

The Board of Directors has determined that it does not have an audit committee member that qualifies as an audit committee financial expert as defined in Item 407(d)(5)(ii) of Regulation S-K. In addition, management believes that retaining an independent director who would qualify as an audit committee financial expert would be overly costly and burdensome and is not warranted in the Company's circumstances.

Compensation Committee

The Company does not have a compensation committee.

Director Nomination

Nomination Committee

The Board of Directors has not formed a nominating committee or similar committee to assist the Board of Directors with the nomination of directors for the Issuer. The Board of Directors considers itself too small to warrant creation of such a committee; and each of the directors has contacts he can draw upon to identify new members of the Board of Directors as needed from time to time.

The Board of Directors will continually assess its size, structure and composition, taking into consideration its current strengths, skills and experience, proposed retirements and the requirements and strategic direction of the Issuer. As required, directors will recommend suitable candidates for consideration as members of the Board of Directors.

Shareholder Nomination of Directors

Shareholders who wish to submit nominees for consideration by the board for election as a director of the Company may do so by submitting in writing such nominees' names, in compliance with the procedures as described below, to the Company's Corporate Secretary. A shareholder's nomination must contain:

- A statement that the writer is a shareholder and is proposing a candidate for consideration by the board of directors;
- The name of and contact information for the candidate;
- A statement of the candidate's business and educational experience;
- Information regarding each of the factors listed above, sufficient to enable the board of directors to evaluate the candidate;
- A statement detailing any relationship or understanding between the proposing shareholder and the candidate;
- A statement that the candidate is willing to be considered and willing to serve as a director if nominated and elected; and
- A statement of the number of shares of the Company's common stock that the nominating shareholder holds of record or in which shareholder has a beneficial interest and the number of such shares that have been held for more than one year.

Shareholder Communication with the Board of Directors

Shareholders desiring to communicate with the Board of Directors on matters other than director nominations should submit their communication in writing to Fred Vandenberg, Corporate Secretary, Destiny Media Technologies Inc., Suite 750, 650 West Georgia Street, Vancouver BC V6B 4N7 and identify themselves as a shareholder. The Corporate Secretary will forward all such communication to the Chairperson of the Board for a determination as to how to proceed.

OTHER EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

In addition to Steve Vestergaard, the following person is an executive officer of the Company:

Fred Vandenberg. Mr. Vandenberg has been the Company's Chief Financial Officer and Corporate Secretary since July 2007. Mr. Vandenberg's core responsibilities include leading the accounting, treasury, strategic planning, financial controls and financial reporting functions of the Company. Mr. Vandenberg has over 17 years of public accounting experience in tax advisory services, mergers and acquisitions, and financial reporting. Mr. Vandenberg completed the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountant's "In-depth" taxation program while with Ernst & Young in 1998. Mr. Vandenberg obtained a Bachelor of Commerce from McMaster University in 1991 and a Master of Business Administration (Finance) from McMaster University in 1993. In 1996, Mr. Vandenberg was designated as a Chartered Accountant in Ontario.

There are no family relationships between Mr. Vandenberg and any other director or executive officer. Mr. Vandenberg is currently not engaged in legal proceedings to which he is a party adverse to us or in which he has a material interest adverse to us.

- (1) Under Rule 13d-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, a beneficial owner of a security includes any person who, directly or indirectly, through any contract, arrangement, understanding, relationship, or otherwise has or shares: (i) voting power, which includes the power to vote, or to direct the voting of shares; and (ii) investment power, which includes the power to dispose or direct the disposition of shares. Certain shares may be deemed to be beneficially owned by more than one person (if, for example, persons share the power to vote or the power to dispose of the shares). In addition, shares are deemed to be beneficially owned by a person if the person has the right to acquire the shares (for example, upon exercise of an option) within 60 days of the date as of which the information is provided. In computing the percentage ownership of any person, the amount of shares outstanding is deemed to include the amount of shares beneficially owned by such person (and only such person) by reason of these acquisition rights. As a result, the percentage of outstanding shares of any person as shown in this table does not necessarily reflect the person's actual ownership or voting power with respect to the number of shares of common stock actually outstanding on January 6, 2012. As of January 6, 2012, there were 50,487,577 shares of our common stock issued and outstanding.
