Nautilus, Inc. 2015 Long-Term Incentive Plan

On April 28, 2015 the Company’s shareholders approved the Nautilus, Inc. 2015 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the “2015 Plan”) at the Company’s 2015 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the “Annual Meeting”). The 2015 Plan was previously approved by the Company’s Board of Directors upon recommendation by the Compensation Committee, subject to shareholder approval at the Annual Meeting. The 2015 Plan will replace the Nautilus, Inc. 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan.

The 2015 Plan authorizes the issuance of 4,769,292 shares of common stock for issuance under the 2015 Plan, comprised of 1,300,000 newly authorized shares and 3,469,292 shares of common stock authorized for issuance under the Company’s expiring 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the “2005 Plan”) but not subject to any grant as of April 28, 2015. Additionally, up to 973,260 shares subject to awards currently outstanding under the 2005 Plan that are subsequently forfeited, lapse or expire shall thereafter become available for issuance under the 2015 Plan.

The Compensation Committee will administer the 2015 Plan. Under the terms of the 2015 Plan, the Compensation Committee has the authority to, among other things, select eligible individuals to whom awards are granted, determine the types of awards to be granted and the number of shares of the Company’s common stock subject to each award, determine the terms, conditions and provisions of such awards, interpret and administer the 2015 Plan and any instrument evidencing an award, notice or agreement executed or entered into under the 2015 Plan, and make any other determination and take any other action that the Compensation Committee deems necessary or desirable for administration of the 2015 Plan.

Awards may be granted under the 2015 Plan to employees, officers and directors, as well as advisors, independent contractors and other service providers, of the Company and its subsidiaries. Under the 2015 Plan, the Compensation Committee may grant incentive and nonqualified stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock awards, stock units, performance shares and performance units.

The foregoing summary of the 2015 Plan does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the 2015 Plan, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report.

Nautilus, Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan

The Company's shareholders also approved the Nautilus, Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the "ESPP") at the Annual Meeting. The ESPP was previously approved by the Board of Directors, upon recommendation by the Compensation Committee, subject to shareholder approval at the Annual Meeting. The ESPP is intended to qualify as an "employee stock purchase plan" under Section 423 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The ESPP provides a means by which eligible employees of the Company and its designated subsidiaries may be given an opportunity to purchase shares of the Company's common stock at a discount using payroll deductions. The ESPP authorizes the issuance of up to 500,000 shares of the Company's common stock, subject to adjustment as provided in the ESPP for stock splits, stock dividends, recapitalizations and other similar events.

The Board designated the Committee to serve as the ESPP administrator. Pursuant to the ESPP, and subject to certain limitations specified therein, eligible employees may elect to purchase shares of the Company's common stock in one or more of a series of offerings conducted pursuant to the procedures set forth in the ESPP at a purchase price equal to 90% of the lower of the fair market value of the common stock on the first trading day of the offering period or on the last day of the offering period. Purchases under the ESPP may be made exclusively through payroll deductions.

Persons eligible to participate in the ESPP generally include employees of the Company and its designated subsidiaries who have been employed by the Company or a participating subsidiary for at least 12 months prior to the applicable offering date (as described in the ESPP) and who, immediately upon purchasing shares under the ESPP, would own directly or indirectly, an aggregate of less than 5% of the total combined voting power or value of all outstanding shares of all classes of stock of the Company or any subsidiary.

The foregoing summary of the ESPP does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the ESPP, which is attached as Exhibit 10.2 to this Current Report.
