On May 12, 2005, an amendment and restatement of the Edwards Lifesciences Corporation (the Company) Long-Term Stock Incentive Compensation Program (the Long-Term Stock Program) was approved by the Company's stockholders. The Long-Term Stock Program had been approved by the Board of Directors on February 17, 2005, subject to stockholder approval.

The Long-Term Stock Program was amended and restated to effect the following changes: (i) increase the number of shares of common stock available for issuance under the Long-Term Stock Program by 1,400,000 shares, from 15,500,000 shares to 16,900,000 shares; (ii) eliminate the Company's ability to award performance shares and performance units; (iii) increase the number of shares of common stock that may be issued in the form of restricted stock or restricted stock units from 500,000 shares to 1,000,000 shares; (iv) increase the number of shares for which any one participant may be granted restricted stock and restricted stock units in any one fiscal year from 50,000 to 200,000 shares; (v) expand the performance criteria that the Compensation and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors may utilize in establishing specific targets to be attained as a condition to the vesting of one or more restricted stock issuances or restricted stock units under the Long-Term Program to qualify the compensation attributable to those issuances or units as performance-based compensation for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. A copy of the Long-Term Stock Program is attached as Exhibit 10.
