Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 23, 2007, SI International, Inc., a Delaware corporation (SI International), entered into a definitive Stock Purchase Agreement (the Agreement) by and among SI International, LOGTEC, Inc. Inc., an Ohio corporation (LOGTEC), and Jolene Mynhier, Meredith H. Mynhier, John M. Nowak and trustees of various trusts holding equity interests in LOGTEC (the Sellers). The terms of the Agreement provide that SI International will acquire all of the outstanding capital stock of LOGTEC for $59 million in cash, of which $5.9 million will be held back by SI International for 15 months after closing in order to secure post-closing indemnity obligations of the Sellers. The purchase price is subject to a two-way adjustment based upon whether the working capital of LOGTEC at the closing of the acquisition is above or below the target working capital specified in the Agreement. Each of the parties to the Agreement has made customary representations and warranties and agreed to certain indemnification obligations. The Agreement also contemplates a non-competition covenant agreed to by each of the Sellers.

As part of the acquisition, the Sellers have agreed to make certain tax elections for the benefit of SI International. SI International estimates the net present value of such election is approximately $9 million.

The consummation of the acquisition is subject to a number of conditions precedent, including SI International obtaining the consent of its senior lender under its existing credit facility. There can be no assurances that the acquisition will be consummated.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On May 23, 2007, SI International issued a press release that announced that it has entered into an agreement to purchase all of the capital stock of LOGTEC, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.

The above-referenced statements may contain forward-looking statements that are made pursuant to the safe-harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The actual results of SI International, Inc. may differ materially from those indicated by these forward-looking statements as a result of various risks and uncertainties, including the following risks and uncertainties that relate specifically to the acquisition: (i) the risk that the transaction will not be consummated, including as a result of the failure of any of the conditions precedent; (ii) the risk that the LOGTEC businesses will not be integrated successfully into SI International; (iii) the risk that the expected benefits of the acquisition may not be realized, including the realization of accretive effects from the acquisition, the ability to maintain and/or strengthen the relationships with key clients, and to maximize cross-selling opportunities; and (iv) SI International's increased indebtedness after the acquisition. Other non-acquisition related risks and uncertainties include: differences between authorized amounts and amounts received by SI International under government contracts; government customers or prime contractor's failure to exercise options under contracts; changes in Federal government (or other applicable) procurement laws, regulations, policies and budgets; SI International's ability to attract and retain qualified personnel; and the important factors discussed in the Risk Factors section of the annual report on Form 10-K filed by SI International with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available directly from the Commission at www.sec.gov. SI International undertakes no obligations to revise or update any forward-looking statements in order to reflect events or circumstances that may arise after the date of this release.
