- Investor Relations Release -

Novartis successfully launches USD 5 billion bond issue

Basel, February 5, 2009 Novartis announced today the successful launch of a major bond market transaction, issuing a two-tranche bond with a total size of USD 5 billion that has been registered in the US.

The transaction consists of the following tranches:

- USD 2 billion of a 5-year bond with a coupon of 4.125% (issued by the Group's US entity, Novartis Capital Corp.)
- USD 3 billion of a 10-year bond with a coupon of 5.125% (issued by the Group's Bermuda unit, Novartis Securities Investment Ltd.)

These bonds are registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission as part of an automatic shelf registration statement filed by Novartis in 2008. Both tranches are unconditionally guaranteed by Novartis AG, which is incorporated in Switzerland and is the ultimate parent company of the issuing entities.

This transaction further enhances the financial flexibility of Novartis through this access to new sources of funding. Proceeds will be used for general corporate purposes.

Novartis AG is rated Aa2 (stable outlook) by Moody's, AA- (stable outlook) by Standard & Poor's and AA (stable outlook) by Fitch. JP Morgan, Bank of America, Citi and Goldman Sachs were joint book-runners.

Disclaimer

This release contains certain forward-looking statements relating to the Group's business, which can be identified by terminology such as "will," or similar expressions, or by express or implied discussions regarding the potential value of the bonds described in this release, the Novartis Group's ability to repay all or any part of the bonds, or potential future sales or earnings of the Novartis Group; or by discussions of strategy, plans, expectations or intentions. You should not place undue reliance on these statements. Such forward-looking statements reflect the current views of the Group regarding future events, and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such statements. There can be no guarantee that the bonds will have any particular value or can be sold or re-sold for any particular value. Nor can there be any guarantee that the Novartis Group will be able to repay all or any part of the bonds. Neither can there be any guarantee that the Novartis Group, or any of its divisions or business units, will achieve any particular financial results. In particular, management's expectations could be affected by, among other things, whether or not a market develops for the bonds; whether or not we issue additional secured or unsecured debt in the future; whether we decide to redeem the notes; uncertainties involved in the development of new pharmaceutical products; unexpected clinical trial results, including additional analysis of existing clinical data or unexpected new clinical data; unexpected regulatory actions or delays with respect to our regulated products, or government regulation generally; the Group's ability to obtain or maintain patent or other proprietary intellectual property protection, including the uncertainties involved in the US litigation process; competition in general; government, industry, and general public pricing and other political pressures; the impact that the foregoing factors could have on the values attributed to the Group's assets and liabilities as recorded in the Group's consolidated balance sheet; and other risks and factors referred to in the Prospectus and Prospectus Supplement for the bonds, and in Novartis AG's current Form 20-F on file with the US Securities and Exchange Commission. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those described herein as anticipated, believed, estimated or expected. Novartis is providing the information in these materials as of this date and does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statements as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

About Novartis
