Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Solely at his own initiative, K. Douglas Ralph, the Chief Financial Officer of Carpenter Technology Corporation (the Company), recently indicated to the Company his desire to retire from the role of Chief Financial Officer. After further discussion of his intentions, Mr. Ralph and the Company entered into an agreement on September 6, 2012 that addressed his continued service to, and eventual cessation of service with, the Company (the Transition Agreement). Pursuant to the Transition Agreement, Mr. Ralph will continue in employment with the Company through August 31, 2013 as either the Chief Financial Officer of the Company or as special advisor to the Company's Chief Executive Officer, to assist with the orderly transition of his responsibilities. In consideration for Mr. Ralph's continued service and contingent on his execution of a general release of claims against the Company and its affiliates, the Company agreed to extend the post-termination exercise period of his vested stock options until the end of each respective option's original term.

Under the Transition Agreement, Mr. Ralph also agreed to refrain from competing with the Company and from soliciting its employees for a period ending three years after the cessation of his employment or, if later, 18 months following his exercise of any Company stock option. If Mr. Ralph breaches these covenants, all of his then outstanding stock options will be forfeited and he will be required to return to the Company any stock acquired by him upon exercise of a stock option.

The summary of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by the actual terms thereof, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated into this Item 5.02 by reference.

The full text of a press release issued in connection with Mr. Ralph's announcement is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
