Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 27, 2016, Abbott Laboratories, an Illinois corporation (Abbott), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with St. Jude Medical, Inc., a Minnesota corporation (St. Jude), Vault Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Abbott (Merger Sub 1), and Vault Merger Sub, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of Abbott (Merger Sub 2). The Merger Agreement provides for, among other things, the merger of Merger Sub 1 with and into St. Jude (the First Merger), with St. Jude surviving the First Merger, followed by the merger of St. Jude with and into Merger Sub 2, with Merger Sub 2 surviving such merger (together with the First Merger, the Mergers).

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the First Merger (the Effective Time), each of St. Jude s issued and outstanding common shares, par value $0.10 per share (the St. Jude Shares) (other than shares owned directly or indirectly by Abbott or any subsidiary of Abbott or any subsidiary of St. Jude immediately prior to the Effective Time and other than St. Jude Shares as to which dissenters rights have been properly exercised) will be converted into the right to receive $46.75 in cash, without interest, and 0.8708 of an Abbott common share (together, the Merger Consideration), less any applicable withholding taxes.

Completion of the Mergers is subject to customary closing conditions, including (1) the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of all outstanding St. Jude Shares, (2) approval for listing on the NYSE of the Abbott shares to be issued in the First Merger, (3) there being no law or order prohibiting, enjoining, or otherwise making illegal the consummation of the Mergers or the issuance of Abbott shares as part of the Merger Consideration, (4) effectiveness of the SEC registration statement to register the offering of Abbott shares as part of the Merger Consideration, and (5) the expiration of the waiting period applicable to the Mergers under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and receipt of other specified antitrust approvals. The obligation of each of St. Jude and Abbott to consummate the Mergers is also conditioned on the other party s representations and warranties being true and correct (subject to specified materiality thresholds), the other party having performed in all material respects all of its obligations under the Merger Agreement, the absence of a material adverse effect, as defined in the Merger Agreement, on the other party, and the receipt by each party of opinions to the effect that the transaction will be treated as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties and covenants of the parties customary for a transaction of this nature. The Merger Agreement has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Abbott or St. Jude. The representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement as of the specific dates therein, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations and warranties or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the parties thereto or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Abbott s or St. Jude s public disclosures.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference.
