Edgar Filing: GOLDEN ENTERPRISES INC - Form 8-K

On December 6, 2005, Golden Enterprises, Inc. (the "Company") received a letter from the Listing Qualifications Department of NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc. ("NASDAQ") indicating that the Company did not meet the independent audit committee requirements set forth in Marketplace Rule 4350(d)(2) (the "Rule"). The NASDAQ letter further stated that the Company's securities were subject to delisting from the NASDAQ national market unless the Company provided a plan under which the Company would satisfy the requirement that Audit Committee members be classified as independent directors. The Company responded to the NASDAQ deficiency letter on December 9, 2005, informing NASDAQ that the Directors who are members of the Audit Committee (James I. Rotenstreich, John S.P. Samford and Edward R. Pascoe) have now resigned from the Voting Committee (as hereinafter described). NASDAQ issued a follow-up letter dated December 9, 2005 that upon the resignations "the Company complies with the Rule and this matter is now closed."

The failure to meet independent audit committee director independence requirements set forth in the Rule was a result of a Voting Committee established upon the death of Sloan Y. Bashinsky, Sr. on August 2, 2005, who controlled a majority of the Company's stock. Mr. Bashinsky created a Voting Committee under his Will and Trust to vote the Company stock controlled by him. The Voting Committee was to be made up of each member of the Board of Directors and one additional member appointed by the Personal Representatives of Mr. Bashinsky's Estate and Trustees of his Trust. This resulted in previously independent directors who served on the Audit Committee losing their independent status. Therefore, the Audit Committee members resigned from the Voting Committee and again qualify as independent directors. On December 12, 2005, the Company issued a Press Release regarding the foregoing matters. A copy of the Press Release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.
