Explanatory Note

On August 24, 2018, Stock Yards Bancorp, Inc. (the “Company”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission a Current Report on Form 8-K (the “Original Report”) to disclose amendments to its Bylaws approved by the Company’s Board of Directors on August 21, 2018. The amendments became effective as of October 1, 2018, in connection with the Company’s previously disclosed executive management transition process. The sole purpose of this Amendment No. 1 to Current Report on Form 8-K/A (the “Amendment”) is to amend the information disclosed in the Original Report by filing the amended Bylaws included in Item 9.01 of this Amendment. No other modifications or updates are made to the disclosures contained in the Original Report. Accordingly, this Amendment should be read in conjunction with the Original Report.

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On August 21, 2018, the Board of Directors of the Company adopted amendments to the Company’s Bylaws, effective October 1, 2018. The amendments were adopted in connection with the Company’s previously disclosed executive management transition plans and reflect the separation of the roles of Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer that will occur on that date (the “Management Transition Date”) when James A. Hillebrand, the current President of the Company, assumes the position of Chief Executive Officer and David P. Heintzman, currently Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, retires as Chief Executive Officer and moves into the role of Executive Chairman until the end of 2018. The amendments address the Board’s responsibility to elect from among its members a Chairman and the Chairman’s general duties and authorities. The amendments provide that the Board may also determine if the Chairman of the Board should be an executive position and, if so, may prescribe additional duties and authorities, if any, to be assigned to the Chairman.

The amendments further create the specific position of Chief Executive Officer of the Company and define the general duties and authorities of that office. The amendments provide that the positions of Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer may, but need not, be held by the same person. The decision as to whether the offices of Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer should be combined or separated will be made from time to time by the Board of Directors in its discretion. The amendments clarify the separate authorities of the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer to call special meetings of shareholders and of the Board of Directors of the Company. Additionally, the amendments provide that all meetings of shareholders will be presided over by the Chairman of the Board or, in the Chairman’s absence, by the Chief Executive Officer. The Chairman will preside at all meetings of the Board that he or she attends. In the Chairman’s absence, the Chief Executive Officer will preside at Board meetings unless the independent directors shall have elected a lead independent director, in which event the lead independent director shall preside.

The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Bylaws, as amended through October 1, 2018, which are filed as Exhibit 3.1 to this Amendment and incorporated in response to this Item by reference.
