Item 5. Other Events and Regulation FD Disclosure

The E.W. Scripps Company (Scripps) has reached a definitive agreement to acquire Summit America Television (Summit) for total consideration of approximately $235 million. Summit's primary assets include a 30 percent minority interest in the Shop At Home television retailing network and its five Shop At Home-affiliated broadcast television stations.

Upon completion of the merger transaction, Scripps will own 100 percent of the Shop At Home network and own Summit's five television stations. The television stations broadcast Shop At Home programming in key major metropolitan markets, including San Francisco, Boston, Cleveland, Bridgeport, Ct., and Raleigh/Durham, N.C.

Scripps will pay $4.05 in cash per share, or approximately $184 million, for approximately 45 million fully-diluted outstanding shares of Summit common stock. We expect to finance the acquisition through additional borrowings on our existing credit facilities.

As part of the transaction, Scripps has agreed to forego repayment of a $47.5 million secured loan extended to Summit as part of the 2002 acquisition of Shop At Home. Scripps also has agreed to forego redemption of $3 million in Summit preferred stock that we hold.

The proposed transaction is subject to approval by Summit shareholders and the appropriate federal regulatory agencies. Assuming no unusual delays in securing the required approvals, the transaction should be completed by June 2004.
