Retirement Benefits and Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change of Control

No Named Executive Officer participates in any Company pension plan or nonqualified defined contribution or nonqualified deferred compensation plan, and none has entered into any agreements or understandings with the Company that provide for payments or benefits to the Named Executive Officer in the event of the Named Executive Officer's termination of employment, including a change of control. Our option awards, however, typically provide that outstanding options would vest immediately upon a change of control.

Generally, upon a termination of employment for any reason, each Named Executive Officer would be entitled to receive a cash payment of the Named Executive Officer's base salary through the date of termination, to the extent not paid, any accrued but unused vacation pay and any reimbursed business expenses. The Compensation Committee may, in its sole discretion, depending upon the circumstances of the termination of employment, pay the terminated Named Executive Officer severance in such amount as then determined by the Company.

Compensation Committee

Carole Ann Taylor and Joseph Bouhadana served on the Compensation Committee of our Board of Directors during fiscal 2010.

We also reimburse their expenses in connection with their activities as directors.

Nonemployee directors are eligible to receive stock options under our 2010 Equity Incentive Plan. They each receive a grant of options for 10,000 shares upon initial election to the Board, to vest annually over three years dependent on continued Board service, and a grant of options for 1,000 shares upon annual reelection to the Board, vested immediately. All such options have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of a share of our common stock on the date of the grant.

Neither Mr. Nussdorf nor Mr. Katz receives any compensation for his service as a director. Mr. Nussdorf served as a consultant on operational matters from June 2009 to April 2011. During fiscal 2010, he received the compensation shown in the table below.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS, AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

Glenn Nussdorf, Stephen Nussdorf and their sister, Arlene Nussdorf (the Nussdorfs) collectively are the beneficial owners of approximately 85% of our common stock. Stephen Nussdorf has served as Chairman of our Board of Directors since February 2004 and was appointed Executive Chairman in April 2011. The Nussdorfs are officers and principals of Quality King, which distributes pharmaceuticals and health and beauty care products, and our President and Chief Executive Officer, Michael W. Katz is an executive of Quality King.

In 2004 and 2008, the Nussdorfs and related parties made loans to the Company on an unsecured basis for which it issued certain promissory notes. As a condition of entering into our new $225 million Senior Credit Facility, effective January 7, 2011, one of our subsidiaries executed Amended and Restated Subordinated Promissory Notes amending these obligations, principally with respect to the timing of payments. The unsecured debt obligations that are currently subordinated to the Senior Credit Facility are as follows:

- (i) a promissory note in the principal amount of $35 million, held by Quality King (the QKD Note), which provides for payment of principal in quarterly installments between April 30, 2015 and July 31, 2018 and payment of interest in quarterly installments commencing on January 31, 2011 at the then current senior debt rate, as defined in the Senior Credit Facility, plus 1% per annum;

(ii) promissory notes in the aggregate principal amount of approximately $55.4 million, held by six estate trusts established by Glenn, Stephen and Arlene Nussdorf (the Nussdorf Trust Notes), which provide for payment of the principal in full on April 30, 2015 and payments of interest in quarterly installments commencing on January 31, 2011 at the then current senior debt rate plus 2% per annum; and

(iii) a convertible note in the principal amount of $5 million held by Glenn and Stephen Nussdorf (the Convertible Note), which allows the holders to convert any or all of the principal and accrued interest into shares of the Company s common stock at $7.00 per share. This note provides for payment in January 2009 and is currently in default because of the restrictions on payment described below, resulting in an increase of 2% in the nominal interest rate, which is the prime rate plus 1%.

Under the Senior Credit Facility, no principal may be paid on any of the QKD Note, the Nussdorf Trust Notes or the Convertible Note until three months after the Senior Credit Facility terminates and is paid in full, and payment of interest is subject to satisfaction of certain conditions, including the Company s maintaining excess availability under the Senior Credit Facility of $17.5 million (or 17.5% of commitment) and a fixed charge coverage ratio, as defined in the credit agreement, of 1.1:1.0.

No payments of principal or interest have been made on the Nussdorf Trust Notes or the Quality King Note and no payments of principal have been made on the Convertible Note. Accordingly, the full principal amount of each, as described above, remains outstanding. We paid approximately $0.2 million of interest on the Convertible Note in fiscal 2008 and have not made any interest payments since then.

Effective August 1, 2008, one of our subsidiaries issued a $1.9 million promissory note payable to Mr. Katz, with interest at 4%, in equal monthly installments of $53,333 commencing September 1, 2008 and terminating August 1, 2011. Under a related stockholder agreement, Mr. Katz is bound by certain non-compete, non-solicitation and confidentiality covenants. During fiscal 2009 and 2010, the highest principal balance due was $1.0 million, and we paid a total of $1.4 under this note.

Transactions with Affiliated Companies

Glenn Nussdorf beneficially owns approximately 10.1% of the outstanding common stock of Parlux Fragrances, Inc. (Parlux), a publicly traded manufacturer and distributor of prestige fragrances and beauty products. We have historically purchased merchandise from Parlux. Glenn Nussdorf also has an ownership interest in Lighthouse Beauty Marketing, LLC and Lighthouse Beauty, LLC, both of which are manufacturers and distributors of prestige fragrances. Starting in fiscal 2010, we began purchasing merchandise from both entities. Starting in fiscal 2009, we have also purchased merchandise from Quality King. Purchases from related parties are generally payable in 90 days; however, due to the seasonality of our business, these terms are generally extended. Related party accounts have historically been brought closer to terms at the end of the holiday season. During the rest of the year, we have relied upon these extended terms to provide a portion of our liquidity. Transactions with these related companies during fiscal 2010 and 2009 were as follows:

	Total Purchases Fiscal Year Ended January 29, 2011	Total Purchases Fiscal Year Ended January 30, 2010	Balance Due January 29, 2011	Balance Due January 30, 2010
	(in thousands)
Parlux	$ 45,679	$ 31,671	$ 14,015	$ 15,891
Quality King	3,529	18,064		19,386
Lighthouse Beauty Marketing, LLC	1,725		318
Lighthouse Beauty, LLC	7,663		406
	$ 58,596	$ 49,735	$ 14,739	$ 35,277

The Nussdorfs own GSN Trucking, Inc. (GSN) which provides general transportation and freight services. We periodically utilize GSN to transport both inbound purchases of merchandise and outbound shipments to wholesale customers. During fiscal 2009 and 2010, total payments to GSN for transportation services provided were approximately $0.2 million. The amount due to GSN at January 29, 2011 was less than $0.1 million.

Quality King occupies a leased 560,000 square foot facility in Bellport, NY. We began occupying approximately half of this facility in December 2007 under a sublease that terminates on September 30, 2027, and this location serves as our principal offices. The monthly current sublease payments of approximately $205,000 increase by 3% annually. We paid approximately $2.5 million and $2.4 million in rent for fiscal 2010 and 2009, respectively.

We and Quality King are parties to a Services Agreement providing for our participation in certain third party arrangements at our respective share of Quality King's cost, including allocated overhead, plus a 2% administrative fee, and the provision of legal services. We also share with Quality King the economic benefit of the bulk rate contract that we have with UPS to ship Quality King's merchandise and related items. The Services Agreement will terminate on thirty days' written notice from either party. During both fiscal 2010 and 2009, allocated operating expenses and payments charged under these arrangements were $0.6 million.

Related Party Transaction Policy

It is our policy that all related party transactions be disclosed to our Audit Committee for review and approval. The Committee reviews all relationships and transactions reported to it in which we and any of our directors, executive officers or principal shareholders, or any of their immediate family members, are participants to determine whether such persons have a direct or indirect material interest. Our Chief Financial Officer is primarily responsible for the development and implementation of processes and controls to obtain information from such persons with respect to related person transactions and for then determining, based on the facts and circumstances, whether the Company or a related person has a direct or indirect material interest in the transaction. In the course of its review and approval or ratification of a disclosable related party transaction, the Audit Committee considers:

- the nature of the related person's interest in the transaction;
- the material terms of the transaction, including, without limitation, the amount and type of transaction;
- the importance of the transaction to the related person;
- the importance of the transaction to us;
- whether the transaction would impair the judgment of a director or executive officer to act in our best interest; and
- any other matters the Committee deems appropriate.

Any member of the Audit Committee who is a related person with respect to a transaction under review may not participate in the deliberations or vote respecting approval or ratification of the transaction, provided, however, that such director may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Committee that considers the transaction.

Director Independence

Our directors are Stephen Nussdorf (Executive Chairman), Joseph Bouhadana, Paul Garfinkle, Michael W. Katz and Carole Ann Taylor. Our Board of Directors has determined that all of our directors, other than Michael W. Katz and Stephen Nussdorf, are independent under the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market.

ITEM 14. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTANT FEES AND SERVICES

The aggregate fees billed by JH Cohn LLP for fiscal 2010 and by Deloitte & Touche LLP, our predecessor principal accountants, for fiscal 2009 were as follows:

Fees	Fiscal 2010	Fiscal 2009
Audit Fees (1)	$ 446,653	$ 763,000

Audit-Related Fees
Tax Fees
All Other Fees (2)	7,500
Total Fees	$ 454,153	$ 763,000

(1) Audit Fees consist of fees billed for professional services rendered in connection with the audit of our consolidated annual financial statements and the review of our interim consolidated financial statements included in quarterly reports.

(2) All Other Fees consist of fees billed in connection with our SEC filings.

The Audit Committee has considered and has determined that the provision of services as described above are compatible with maintaining JH Cohn LLP's independence. The Audit Committee pre-approves the engagement of JH Cohn LLP for all professional services. The pre-approval process generally involves the full Audit Committee's evaluating and approving the particular engagement prior to the commencement of services. All of the services described above under All Other Fees were pre-approved by the Audit Committee.
