Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On November 16, 2012, MasterCard Incorporated (the "Company") entered into a committed five-year unsecured $3,000,000,000 revolving credit facility (the "Credit Facility") with Citibank, N.A. as managing administrative agent, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. as administrative agent, Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and J.P. Morgan Securities, Inc. as lead arrangers, and Bank of China, New York Branch, Lloyds Securities Inc., RBS Securities, Inc., The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, LTD. and U.S. Bank, National Association as joint lead arrangers and documentation agents, and the other lenders from time to time party thereto. The Credit Facility, which expires on November 16, 2017, replaced the Company's prior $2,750,000,000 credit facility which was to expire on November 22, 2013 with respect to the aggregate revolving commitments of $400,000,000 and on November 21, 2014 with respect to the aggregate remaining commitments of $2,350,000,000.

The Credit Facility provides the Company with a revolving credit facility with a borrowing capacity of up to $3,000,000,000. Borrowings under the Credit Facility are available for general corporate purposes. Interest on borrowings under the Credit Facility would be charged at the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) or an alternative base rate, in each case plus applicable margins that fluctuate based on the applicable long-term issuer rating (or, if not available, the counterparty rating) of the Company. The Company has agreed to pay a facility fee which will fluctuate based on the Company's applicable rating.

Certain other material terms of the Credit Facility include:

a financial covenant which requires the Company to maintain a maximum consolidated leverage ratio (defined as the ratio of consolidated adjusted debt to consolidated EBITDA, in each case as defined in the Credit Facility) of not greater than 3.50 to 1.00;

restrictive covenants (subject, in each case, to certain customary exceptions and amounts) which limit the Company's ability to, among other things: (a) create liens (excluding, among other things, liens not exceeding the lesser of (x) $400,000,000 or (y) 4% of consolidated total assets of the Company); (b) effect fundamental changes to MasterCard and its subsidiaries, (c) dispose of assets outside of the ordinary course of business (excluding, among others, the sale of property in any period of twelve consecutive months not exceeding 25% of the Company's consolidated total assets); (d) engage in transactions with affiliates; and (e) enter into new lines of business which would result in a change in the Company's primary business;

customary events of default, upon the occurrence of which, after any applicable grace period, the lenders will have the ability to accelerate all outstanding loans thereunder and terminate the commitments;

the option for the Company to prepay, terminate or reduce the commitments under the Credit Facility at any time without penalty in minimum amounts of $10.0 million; and customary representations and warranties.

The foregoing description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Credit Facility, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

The majority of the Credit Facility lenders are customers or affiliates of customers of MasterCard International Incorporated, the Company's operating subsidiary. Certain of the lenders under the Credit Facility, or their affiliates, have provided, and may in the future from time to time provide, certain commercial and investment banking, financial advisory and other services in the ordinary course of business for the Company and its subsidiaries, for which they have in the past and may in the future receive customary fees and commissions.
