CME Group Revolving Senior Credit Facility

Effective as of January 11, 2011, CME Group Inc. (the Company or CME Group) entered into a $1 billion multi-currency revolving senior credit facility with certain financial institutions and other persons party thereto as lenders and Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent, and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, Barclays Capital, UBS Securities LLC, and Wells Fargo Securities, LLC, as joint lead arrangers, for such lenders (the Senior Credit Facility). Effective as of November 1, 2011, the Company exercised its option to increase the Senior Credit Facility by $40 million and entered into an amendment (the 2011 Amendment) to the Senior Credit Facility among CME Group, JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A. and Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent.

Effective as of November 30, 2012, the Company entered into an amendment to and extension of the Senior Credit Facility with certain financial institutions and other persons party thereto as lenders and Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent, to adopt an amended and restated consolidated credit agreement (the Consolidated Credit Agreement).

The terms and conditions of the Consolidated Credit Agreement consolidate, amend and restate the terms and conditions of the Senior Credit Facility and the 2011 Amendment to: (i) increase the amount of available funds from $1.040 billion to $1.5 billion, (ii) increase the Company's option to increase the facility, from time to time to, from $1.5 billion to $2.25 billion, on an aggregate basis, so long as no default is continuing under the Consolidated Credit Agreement, with only the consent of the agent and the lenders providing the additional funds required; and (iii) extend the maturity date from January 11, 2014 to January 12, 2016 except for the non-extending lenders representing $95 million of the existing commitments.

The revolving credit facility as evidenced in the Consolidated Credit Agreement is voluntarily prepayable from time to time without premium or penalty.

The availability of loans under the Consolidated Credit Agreement on and after the closing date is subject to customary conditions, including the absence of any defaults thereunder and the accuracy of the Company's representations and warranties contained therein in all material respects.

The Consolidated Credit Agreement includes representations and warranties, covenants and events of default, including requirements that the Company maintain a minimum consolidated net worth, as well as customary limitations on liens on the assets of the Company and its significant subsidiaries, subsidiary indebtedness and fundamental changes, including mergers and consolidations of the Company and its significant subsidiaries, dispositions of all or substantially all of the consolidated assets of the Company and its subsidiaries taken as a whole or more than 50% of the voting stock of Chicago Mercantile Exchange Inc., Board of Trade of the City of Chicago, Inc. or New York Mercantile Exchange, Inc.

The foregoing description of the Consolidated Credit Agreement is only a summary, does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, and should be read in conjunction with, the complete text of the Consolidated Credit Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Letter of Credit Facility is a $250 million revolving credit facility co-terminous with the Consolidated Credit Facility to provide for loans in U.S. Dollars only and for the issuance of standby letters of credit denominated in U.S. dollars up to the full amount of the facility. The availability of loans, the representations and warranties, covenants and events of default of the Letter of Credit Facility are substantially the same as those of the Consolidated Credit Agreement.
