On February 15, 2013, the following communication was made available to Citi AAdvantage Cardmembers.

Dear Citi/AAdvantage Cardmember:

As you may know, American Airlines and US Airways recently announced plans to come together to create the new American Airlines. As a valued Citi® / AAdvantage® cardmember, we wanted to share what this exciting and historic news means for you.

At this time, American and US Airways will remain separate companies and each company will maintain its current loyalty program. Your AAdvantage® miles are secure and existing miles will continue to be honored. In addition, you will continue to earn miles through the Citi / AAdvantage credit cards and existing AAdvantage participating companies, and you will be able to redeem those miles for the same great awards – flights, upgrades, car rentals and hotels just to name a few.

The Citi / AAdvantage credit cards will continue to offer unparalleled airline benefits that allow cardmembers to travel in comfort and style. As a cardmember, you will continue to enjoy the fantastic benefits your Citi / AAdvantage credit card offers at the airport, during check-in and boarding, and throughout the travel experience.

The transaction, which is subject to customary approvals and closing conditions, is expected to close in the third quarter of 2013. The combined company is expected to offer AAdvantage members more opportunities to earn and burn miles from an expanded global network of routes and partnerships, unmatched redemption options including flights, hotels, car rentals, vacation packages, one-way awards and lounge memberships, and much more.

The new American will join two highly complementary networks with access to the best destinations domestically and around the globe, allowing us to provide customers with more choices, improved efficiency and better options for customers. The combined airline will be better equipped to offer you an expanded domestic and global network with more than 6,700 daily flights to 336 destinations in 56 countries by maintaining all the hubs currently served by both airlines.

As the new American takes shape, we will also continue to give you options for travel and benefits both domestically and internationally through continued membership in the oneworld® Alliance. As they do today, American's oneworld partners will offer you access to a range of destinations, airline choices, and mileage earning and redemption opportunities.

We expect the combined airline will ultimately result in the most connected, comfortable travel experience in the industry. Together, it will have a greater ability to continue to invest in transforming the fleet, and modernizing the travel experience through new technologies, products and services.

As American continues its journey and takes the next step toward becoming a premier global carrier, we will continue to work with our long-standing partner Citibank to bring you cardmember benefits designed to deliver the world-class travel experience, loyalty program benefits and credit card features that you expect and value.

We will keep you updated throughout the process and, in the interim invite you to visit www.aa.com/arriving for more information.

Thank you for your continued loyalty, and we look forward to continuing to serve you.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Rubin
