Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously disclosed, Autoliv, Inc. (Autoliv), two of its officers and an employee are defendants in a purported class action securities lawsuit filed by the Construction Laborers Pension Trust of Greater St. Louis (Plaintiff) on April 17, 2013 in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (Civil Action File No. 13-CIV-2546) (the Lawsuit). Plaintiff purports to bring the Lawsuit on behalf of a class of purchasers who bought Autoliv common stock between October 26, 2010 and July 21, 2011. Plaintiff alleges that Autoliv misrepresented or failed to disclose that antitrust violations by Autoliv artificially inflated Autoliv s earnings and stock price in violation of the federal securities laws. Plaintiff seeks to recover an unspecified amount of damages on behalf of the alleged class of purchasers.

On June 27, 2014, Autoliv announced that it entered into a memorandum of understanding with Plaintiff reflecting an agreement in principle to settle the Lawsuit and the claims of the alleged class for a payment of $22.5 million. Autoliv expects to record a net expense of approximately $4.5 million in its second quarter results. The balance of the settlement amount will be paid by Autoliv s insurance carrier.

The proposed agreement is not an admission of wrongdoing or acceptance of fault by Autoliv or any of the individuals named in the complaint. The defendants are settling to eliminate the uncertainties, risk, distraction and expense associated with protracted litigation.

The proposed agreement is subject to negotiation and execution of a final settlement agreement among the parties and final approval by the court following notice to the settlement class and a fairness hearing.

A copy of the press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
