Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On October 1, 2014, The New York Times Company (the Company) provided a communication to employees that included certain information regarding the Company's revenues and expenses for the three-month period ended September 28, 2014. A copy of this employee communication is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated by reference herein.

Item 8.01 Other Items.

On October 1, 2014, the Company provided a communication to employees, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated by reference herein.

Some of the statements included in Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, particularly those regarding expected revenues, expenses and profitability, are forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties, and actual results could differ materially from those predicted by such forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include changes in the business and competitive environment in which the Company operates, the impact of national and local conditions and developments in technology, each of which could influence the levels (rate and volume) of the Company's circulation and advertising, the growth of its digital businesses and the implementation of its strategic initiatives. The Company's actual results could also be impacted by the other risks detailed from time to time in its publicly filed documents, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 29, 2013. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
