Top of the Form Item 8.01 Other Events.

On October 19, 2001, Materion Corporation, through its wholly owned subsididary, Materion Advanced Materials Technologies and Services Inc. (AMTS), completed the acquisition of EIS Optics Limited. The transaction, valued at approximately $24 million, was financed with internally generated cash and borrowings under the Company's $325 million revolving line of credit.

EIS Optics is a leading producer of optical thin film filters, glass processing, lithograph and optical subassemblies that allow for the precision management of light in a broad range of end-use applications throughout the projection display, entertainment lighting, sensors, medical instruments and gaming industries. Products manufactured with EIS Optics' materials and assemblies include projectors, cinema components, HDTV, high-end hand-held cameras and gaming systems.
