PRESS RELEASE

Paolo Scaroni and Alexei Miller meeting

San Donato Milanese (Milan), 05 December 2006 - Eni CEO Paolo Scaroni and Gazprom CEO Alexei Miller met today in the headquarters of Gazprom.

The parties talked about the aspects concerning the further development of the co-operation in the oil sector. The main topic was the implementation of the strategic partnership agreement between Eni and Gazprom, signed on November 14th, 2006.

Alexei Miller and Paolo Scaroni agreed a step ahead focusing on what was established under the agreement about the entry of Gazprom into Eni's production and downstream gas assets, in return of Eni's participation into Russian production assets.

Eni adopts new Voluntary Code of Conduct for listed companies

Roma, 13 December 2006 - Eni's Board of Directors met today to adopt the new version of the Voluntary Code of Conduct for listed companies, issued on 14 March 2006. The Code provisions have been adapted in line with the particular situation of the company, and the recommended level of governance has been raised.

The Code adopted by Eni will be published on the company website.

During the meeting, the directors also approved a series of resolutions concerning the implementation of the Code's regulations, in particular redefining the powers of the Board itself. Additionally, the Board has decided to take a leading role in the company's sustainability policies.

Measures for the application of the other provisions of the Code will be introduced in early 2007.

Eni will provide details about the adoption and enforcement of the Code in its corporate governance report, to be published in conjunction with the 2006 Annual Report.

Eni has always regarded compliance with corporate governance guidelines and regulations as a guiding value for its organization and corporate conduct.
