PART III — NARRATIVE

As of May 14, 2018, the filing deadline for its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended April 3, 2018 ("Form 10-Q"), Jamba Inc. (the "Company") was not able to complete the preparation, review, and filing of its Form 10-Q due to the focus of the Company on the completion of its Form 10-K filing for its fiscal year ended January 2, 2018 and the additional time required to complete the year-end audit (the "2017 10-K"). The Company completed the year-end audit and filed the 2017 10-K on May 11, 2018, and significant time and resources were diverted from the Company's completion of 10-Q due to these matters. As a result, the Company cannot eliminate the reasons causing the inability to file timely without unreasonable effort or expense.

With full cooperation of our audit firm, Whitley Penn, the Company intends to file the Form 10-Q as soon as practicable. While the Company continues to work expeditiously to file its 10-Q as soon as practicable, the Company does not anticipate filing the Form 10-Q within the five-day period provided by Rule 12b-25.

If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As disclosed in Part III, the Company requires additional time to finalize its financial statements to be filed as part of its Form 10-Q for its fiscal quarter ended April 3, 2018. As a result, the Company is unable to provide a reasonable estimate of the results at this time.
