Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 16, 2005, Esterline Technologies Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Esterline), acquired of Darchem Holdings Limited (Darchem), a manufacturer of thermally engineered components for critical aerospace applications, pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of December 16, 2005 (the Purchase Agreement). Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, a subsidiary of Esterline, Esterline Technologies Holdings Limited (ETHL) acquired all of the outstanding capital stock of Darchem for a total consideration of U.K. £67.5 million in cash (approximately $120.0 million), subject to adjustment based on the amount of cash of and net working capital of Darchem as of December 16, 2005 pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement. In addition, U.K. £4.0 million (approximately $7.1 million) of the purchase price has been placed in escrow for two years as security for the potential purchase price adjustments and the shareholders' indemnification obligations under the Purchase Agreement.

Esterline financed the Darchem acquisition using cash on hand and approximately $80.0 million provided through a December 15, 2005 draw down of its $100.0 million credit facility made available through a group of banks (the Lenders), with Wachovia Bank acting as administrative and collateral agent. The amount drawn is due on February 15, 2006, which date may be extended by Esterline, and accrues interest at the rate of 5.19% per annum, which rate will be adjusted to equal LIBOR plus the applicable margin pursuant to the terms of the credit agreement for the facility as of the date of the extension of the due date, if any. The credit facility is secured by substantially all of Esterline's assets. The credit agreement contains covenants, including but not limited to, restrictions on liens, making certain investments in third parties, capital expenditures, incurrence of additional indebtedness, repurchase of Esterline's common stock, declaration of dividends and certain asset dispositions. In addition, the credit agreement requires that Esterline comply with certain financial covenants, including a maximum leverage ratio and a fixed charge coverage ratio. As of the date of this report, Esterline was in compliance with the terms of the covenants of the credit agreement.

There was no material relationship between either Esterline or ETHL (or any officer, director or affiliate of either Esterline or ETHL, respectively, or any associate of any such officer or director) and Darchem and any of the shareholders of Darchem. In addition, other than the credit facility, Esterline does not have any material relationship with the Lenders, nor is Esterline aware of any material relationship existing between any of its affiliates and the Lenders.

The Purchase Agreement is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this report and the press release issued by Esterline regarding the Leach acquisition is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this report, each of which is incorporated into this report by reference. The summary of the provisions of the Purchase Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by the provisions of the Purchase Agreement. The press release regarding the Darchem acquisition should be read in
