INFORMATION INCLUDED IN THIS REPORT

Section 1 — Registrant's Business & Operations

Item 1.01 Entry Into Material Definitive Agreements.

On March 15, 2016, Copart, Inc. (“Copart”) entered into a First Amendment to Credit Agreement (the “Amendment to Credit Agreement”) by and among Copart, certain subsidiaries of Copart party thereto, the lenders party thereto, and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as administrative agent. The Amendment to Credit Agreement amends certain terms of the Credit Agreement, dated as of December 3, 2014 (the “Credit Agreement”), by and among Copart, the lenders from time to time party thereto, and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as administrative agent. The Amendment to Credit Agreement provides for (a) an increase in the secured revolving credit commitments by $50.0 million, bringing the aggregate principal amount of the revolving credit commitments under the Credit Agreement to $350.0 million, (b) a new secured term loan in the aggregate principal amount of $93.4 million having a maturity date of March 15, 2021, and (c) an extension of the termination date of the revolving credit facility and the maturity date of the existing term loan under the Credit Agreement from December 3, 2019 to March 15, 2021. The Amendment to Credit Agreement extended the amortization period for the existing term loan under the Credit Agreement, and decreased the quarterly amortization payments for that loan.

Copart borrowed the entire $93.4 million principal amount of the new term loan concurrent with the closing of the Amendment to Credit Agreement. The Amendment to Credit Agreement reduced the pricing levels under the Credit Agreement to a range of 0.15% to 0.30% in the case of the commitment fee, 1.125% to 2.00% in the case of the applicable margin for LIBOR loans, and 0.125% to 1.00% in the case of the applicable margin for base rate loans, in each case depending on Copart’s consolidated total net leverage ratio.

The principal purposes of these financing transactions were to increase the size and availability under Copart’s revolving facility and to provide additional long term financing. Copart intends to use the proceeds of today’s financing, in addition to availability under the secured revolving loan facility, for general corporate purposes, including working capital and capital expenditures as well as potential share repurchases, acquisitions, or other investments relating to Copart’s expansion strategies in domestic and international markets.

Forward Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including statements relating to the use of proceeds of today's financing.

Forward-looking statements involve substantial risks and uncertainties that may cause actual events or results to differ materially from currently anticipated events or results such as Copart's ability to generate sufficient cash flow to timely service its indebtedness; Copart's ability to adhere to the negative covenants and restrictions contained in the financing documents; working capital requirements; and the timing and size of any future acquisitions or share repurchases, if any. In addition, Copart's business is subject to numerous risks and uncertainties, including, among others, risks relating to vehicle supplier and customer acquisition and maintenance; risks associated with international operations; and risks associated with online operations, including cyber-attacks and credit card fraud. Information on these and additional risks, uncertainties, and other information affecting our business and operating results are contained in Copart's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including risks and uncertainties identified in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended January 31, 2016. You should review these risk factors carefully. All forward-looking statements are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement. Copart does not undertake any obligation to publicly update its forward-looking statements based on events or circumstances after the date hereof, except as required by law.
