On March 6, 2001, Teamasia Semiconductors PTE Ltd., a Singapore corporation, transferred all of its shares of Common Stock of IMP to Teamasia Mauritius. As of that date, Teamasia Semiconductors PTE Ltd. ceased to have beneficial ownership of any shares of Common Stock of IMP.

As previously disclosed by IMP, on May 10, 2001, IMP entered into a Memorandum of Understanding Relating to Amendment of Convertible Debentures and Support of Investment Transactions (the "Amendment Memorandum") with Teamasia Mauritius and TSIL. Pursuant to the Amendment Memorandum, the terms of the $1.2

million convertible debenture (a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 6 and incorporated in its entirety by reference herein) and the $2.3 million convertible debenture (a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 7 and incorporated in its entirety by reference herein) held by TSIL (the "Convertible Debentures") which otherwise would have become due and payable in May 2001 and June 2001 were amended as follows: (1) the maturity date was extended for one year; (2) interest accrues at the prime rate and is payable on the maturity date; and (3) the conversion rate was reduced from $1.75 to $0.69, which was the closing price of IMP's Common Stock on May 10, 2001 (as a result of the completion of a 1-for-5 reverse split of the Common Stock that was announced on October 2, 2001 as described below, the agreed conversion rate became adjusted from $0.69 to $3.45). In addition, pursuant to the Amendment Memorandum, the Company agreed to issue to TSIL a warrant to purchase 1,599,000 million shares of common stock at an exercise price of $0.22 per share (as a result of the subsequent 1-for-5 reverse split of the Common Stock, the agreed warrant became adjusted to a warrant to purchase 319,800 shares at an exercise price of $1.10). Pursuant to the Amendment Memorandum, TSIL will continue to be entitled to nominate one director for election to IMP's Board of Directors for so long as it continues to own at least five percent of the IMP's outstanding stock. A copy of the Amendment Memorandum is attached hereto as Exhibit 8 and incorporated by reference herein. The foregoing description of certain terms of the Amendment Memorandum is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Amendment Memorandum.

Also on May 10, 2001, as previously disclosed by IMP, IMP entered into a Memorandum of Understanding Relating to Common Stock Issuance and Related Transactions (the "Investment Memorandum"). Pursuant to the Investment Memorandum, IMP agreed to issue to a management-led investor group (the "New Investor") an aggregate of 27.4 million shares of common stock for a purchase price of $6.0 million, or $0.22 per share (subsequently adjusted for the 1-for-5 reverse split of the Common Stock). Pursuant to the Investment Memorandum, Mr. Pinamaneni represented that although he is a director and minority stockholder of Teamasia, in making the proposal pursuant to the Investment Memorandum, Mr. Pinamaneni was acting on behalf of himself and not acting directly or indirectly for Teamasia. Mr. Pinamaneni and Mr. Mok are directors of Teamasia Mauritius, and Mr. Pinamaneni is also a director of TSIL. The Reporting Persons disclaim any beneficial ownership of any shares of Common Stock of IMP to be obtained by the New Investor, including any interest of Mr. Pinamaneni and Mr. Mok therein, pursuant to the Investment Memorandum.

On June 21, 2001, the Board of Directors of IMP approved, subject to stockholder approval, a Stock Purchase Agreement (the "Stock Purchase Agreement") to be entered into by and between IMP and the New Investor. On July 3, 2001, Teamasia Mauritius executed a written consent approving the Stock

On October 2, 2001, IMP announced that it had completed a 1-for-5 reverse split of its Common Stock.

Also as of November 30, 2001, IMP issued to TSIL a warrant to purchase 319,800 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $1.10 (the "Warrant Agreement"), as described above. A copy of the Warrant Agreement is incorporated by reference herein as Exhibit 10.

In June, 2002, the maturity date for the Convertible Debentures was extended to August 15, 2002. As previously disclosed by IMP, IMP has been in negotiations with TSIL to extend the maturity date for the Convertible Debentures for a further period or to convert the amount due under the Convertible Debentures into equity, but no assurances can be given that any agreement will be reached. TSIL reserves all of its rights under the Convertible Debentures and may take such action as it deems appropriate to enforce such rights.

Teamasia Mauritius, TSIL, Semiconductors, HPEF2 and HPEIF each, for itself and without regard to the other Reporting Persons, intends to review its investment in IMP from time to time and, depending upon, among other things, the price and availability of the Common Stock, subsequent developments affecting IMP, IMP's business and prospects, other investment and business opportunities available to such Reporting Person, general stock market and economic conditions, tax considerations and other factors deemed relevant, may decide to increase or decrease the size of its investment in IMP. Each Reporting Person intends to explore opportunities for IMP and each Reporting Person to work together on transactions involving assets and/or business operations that each Reporting Person owns presently or may develop or acquire in the future, including, without limitation, opportunities to share and mutually benefit from production, design, quality control and other assets and/or business operations applicable to the semiconductor industry. Each Reporting Person may investigate such transactions and opportunities, if any, from time to time and, as it deems appropriate in its discretion, propose such transactions and/or opportunities to IMP.
