RANGER GOVERNANCE ANNOUNCES MODIFICATION OF PROCEDURE REGARDING SOLICITING VOTES FOR THE SHORT SLATE

Dallas, TX, August 17, 2001 - Ranger announced today a modification of the procedures which it will follow with respect to its shift from soliciting votes for a full slate of directors for Computer Associates International, Inc. (NYSE: CA) to a slate of four candidates.

Ranger will not nominate Dr. Wendy Lee Gramm, Bob Cook, Dennis Mitchell Crumpler, Mark Cuban, Dixon Doll or Sam Wyly to serve as directors of Computer Associates at the annual meeting on August 29, 2001. Proxies received authorizing a vote for Ranger's full slate of ten candidates will be voted for Cece Smith, Elizabeth VanStory, Richard J. Agnich and Stephen Perkins, the sole Ranger nominees. Thus, any stockholder who granted Ranger's representatives authority to vote his or her shares in favor of Dr. Wendy Lee Gramm, Bob Cook, Dennis Mitchell Crumpler, Mark Cuban, Dixon Doll or Sam Wyly and who does not submit a new proxy card will lose the opportunity to cast a meaningful vote with respect to as many as six of Computer Associates' ten directorships.

About Ranger Governance, Ltd.

Ranger Governance is a Dallas-based investment company created by entrepreneurs Sam Wyly and Charles Wyly, and an affiliate of Ranger Capital Group, a multi-manager investment fund also based in Dallas. On July 27, 2001, Ranger Governance filed a definitive proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with Ranger's solicitation of proxies to elect its director nominees at the 2001 annual stockholders meeting of Computer Associates and has mailed copies to stockholders. Ranger has filed with the Commission a supplement to its definitive proxy statement regarding its support of a short slate of nominees. Ranger urges stockholders to read its proxy statement and the supplement because they contain important information. More information about Ranger Governance and copies of its definitive proxy statement and the supplement can be found at www.rangergov.com. Copies of Ranger's definitive proxy statement and other Ranger soliciting materials, including the supplement, are also available at the Securities and Exchange Commission's website at www.sec.gov.

ISS RECOMMENDS THAT COMPUTER ASSOCIATES SHAREHOLDERS
VOTE FOR THE RANGER GOVERNANCE NOMINEES

ISS Says Ranger Nominees Are "Instant Medicine for What Ails CA"

Dallas, TX, August 20, 2001 - Ranger Governance, Ltd. today announced that Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS), the nation's leading independent proxy advisory firm, has recommended to its clients that Computer Associates (NYSE: CA) shareholders vote the four Ranger Governance director nominees to the CA Board of Directors at the annual meeting of CA shareholders on Wednesday, August 29, 2001.

ISS provides detailed proxy recommendations that are relied upon by more than 700 U.S.-based institutional investment firms, mutual funds, and other fiduciary organizations.

In reaching its decision to recommend the Ranger Governance nominees - Cece Smith, Elizabeth VanStory, Richard Agnich and Stephen Perkins - ISS noted in its August 20, 2001 report that:

"The revised [Ranger] slate, by contrast, offers instant medicine for what ails CA."*

"With the addition of four Ranger nominees who cannot by even the most skeptical observer be regarded as pliant to management, the company benefits by addition--the addition of credibility, of trust, and of confidence that accounting practices will not be needlessly obfuscatory, that executive compensation will be subjected to meaningful scrutiny, and that customer and employee relations will be given foremost priority."*

"CA remains as much in need of new faces on its board as ever and management's reassurances and moves in this direction, while encouraging, are not sufficient to reject the real opportunity to immediately elect clearly independent directors in the form of the Ranger nominees."*

"CA is much in need of a clean break from its past, and in particular from the influence of Mr. Wang, whose continued presence on the board depresses investor confidence in the progress being made."*

Ranger nominee Steve Perkins said, "We are very pleased that ISS has endorsed the Ranger Governance slate. ISS' recommendation reinforces Ranger's belief that there is a need for change at CA and that the Company and its shareholders will benefit from the insight and experience of the Ranger nominees. We're confident that the Ranger nominees will ensure a greater voice on the Computer Associates Board for the people who should have had it all along - the shareholders."
