Program Review Update. On March 25, 2011, Strayer Education, Inc. (the Company) received a preliminary program review report from the Department of Education indicating its position that Strayer University's Associate in Arts in General Studies program is not an eligible program under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965. The Company disagrees with this preliminary finding and is communicating with the Department to resolve the matter. Approximately 700 students registered for the Associates in Arts in General Studies program for the Spring quarter; they will be enrolled in another program.

Nomination of New Director. Mr. John T. Casteen III, President Emeritus of the University of Virginia, has been nominated to serve as a Director. Mr. Casteen served as the President of, and Professor of English at, the University of Virginia from 1990 through 2010. Prior to his service to the University of Virginia, Mr. Casteen was President of the University of Connecticut from 1985 to 1990. From 1982 to 1985, Mr. Casteen served as the Secretary of Education for the Commonwealth of Virginia. Mr. Casteen is on the board of directors of Altria, Inc., and served on the board of directors of Wachovia Corporation until 2008. Mr. Casteen also is a member of the board of directors of the Chesapeake Bay Foundation, the National Student Clearinghouse, the Virginia Foundation for Community College Education, and the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars. He has chaired the boards of both the College Entrance Examination Board and the Association of American Universities.
