PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
May 10, 2004

GENERAL

This proxy statement is furnished by our board of directors in connection with the solicitation by the board of directors of proxies to be voted at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held at 11:00 a.m. local time on May 10, 2004, at the Courtyard by Marriott, 31525 West 12 Mile Road, Farmington Hills, Michigan, and at any adjournment or adjournments thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying notice of such meeting. All stockholders of record at the close of business on March 15, 2004, will be entitled to vote at the meeting.

Voting. Any proxy, if received in time, properly signed and not revoked, will be voted at the annual meeting in accordance with the directions of the stockholder. If no directions are specified, the proxy will be voted for the proposal set forth in this proxy statement. Any stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before it is exercised. A proxy may be revoked (i) by delivery of a written statement to our corporate Secretary stating that the proxy is revoked, (ii) by preparation of a subsequent proxy executed by the person executing the prior proxy, or (iii) by attendance at the annual meeting and voting in person.

Votes cast in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by the election inspectors appointed for the meeting, and the inspectors, assisted by our Secretary, will determine whether or not a quorum is present. The election inspectors will treat abstentions as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum, but as unvoted for purposes of determining the approval of any matter submitted to the stockholders.

Quorum. The presence, in person or represented by proxy, of the holders of a majority of our common stock (3,233,486 shares) entitled to vote at the annual meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum at the annual meeting. However, if a quorum is not present at the annual meeting, the shareholders, present in person or represented by proxy, have the power to adjourn the annual meeting until a quorum is present or represented. Pursuant to our bylaws, abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum at the annual meeting. A broker non-vote occurs when a nominee holding common stock does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power with respect to that item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

Cost of Proxy Solicitation. Solicitation of proxies will be primarily by mail. However, our directors and officers also may solicit proxies by telephone or telecopy or in person. All of the expenses of preparing, assembling, printing and mailing the materials used in the solicitation of proxies will be paid by us. Arrangements may be made with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward soliciting materials, at our expense, to the beneficial owners of shares held of record by such persons. It is anticipated that this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card first will be mailed to stockholders on or about March 24, 2004.

Table of Contents

Outstanding Stock. As of March 15, 2004, 6,466,971 shares of our common stock, $.0001 par value per share, were outstanding. Each share of common stock entitles the holder thereof to one vote on each of the matters to be voted upon at the annual meeting. As of the record date, our executive officers and directors had the power to vote approximately 3.75% of the outstanding shares of common stock. Our executive officers and directors have advised us that they intend to vote their shares of common stock in favor of the proposal set forth in this proxy statement.

Required Vote. Plurality approval is required to elect our directors. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not counted for purposes of the election of directors.

COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Our board of directors has an audit committee, an executive committee, an executive compensation committee and a nominating and governance committee.

NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE

All members of the nominating and corporate governance committee have been determined by our board of directors to meet the NYSE standards of independence.

The nominating and corporate governance committee operates under a formal charter adopted by our board of directors that governs its duties and standards for performance. The charter is reproduced as Addendum C to this proxy statement. Copies of the charter can be obtained free of charge from our web site, www.agreerealty.com or by contacting us at the address appearing on the first page of this proxy statement to the attention of Investor Relations or by telephone at 248-737-4190.

The nominating and corporate governance committee considers candidates for board membership suggested by its members and other board members, as well as management and stockholders. A stockholder who wishes to recommend a prospective nominee for consideration by the board must follow the procedures described in this proxy statement under the caption "Procedures for Nominating or Recommending for Nomination Candidates for Director." Once the nominating and corporate governance committee has identified prospective nominees, background information is elicited about the candidates, following which they are investigated, interviewed and evaluated by the committee, which, then, reports to the board of directors. No distinctions are made as between internally-recommended candidates and those recommended by Stockholders.

CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT AND ETHICS

Management has adopted a Code of Ethics for our principal executive officer and our chief financial officer, violations of which may be reported to the audit committee. The code is reproduced as Addendum D to this proxy statement. DIRECTORS' ATTENDANCE AT ANNUAL MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

It has been and is the policy of our board of directors to expect that directors attend annual meetings of Stockholders except where the failure to attend is due to unavoidable circumstances or conflicts discussed in advance by the director with the Chairman of the Board. All members of our board of directors attended our 2003 annual meeting of stockholders.

COMMUNICATION WITH THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

A stockholder who wishes to communicate with our board of directors or specific individual directors may do so by directing a written request addressed to such directors or director in care of Kenneth R. Howe, Secretary, at the address appearing on the first page of this proxy statement. Communication(s) directed to members of the board who are not non-management directors will be relayed to the intended director except to the extent that is deemed unnecessary or inappropriate to do so pursuant to the procedures established by a majority of our independent directors. Communications directed to non-management directors will be relayed to the intended board member(s) except to the extent that doing so would be contrary to the instructions of the non-management directors. Any communication so withheld will nevertheless be made available to any non-management director who wishes to review it.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

Our current employment agreements with Messrs. Agree and Howe became effective on July 1, 1999. Mr. Prueter's employment agreement became effective on January 10, 2000. Messrs. Schaefer and Coburn do not have employment agreements with us. Mr. Agree's employment agreement, pursuant to which he serves as our Chairman of the Board and President, has a five-year term that we expect to extend for an additional year. Under his employment agreement, Mr. Agree receives an annual base salary of $200,000, subject to annual increases at the discretion of the executive compensation committee, and is entitled to participate in the Stock Incentive Plan and all other benefit programs generally available to our executive officers.

If we terminate Mr. Agree's employment without cause (as defined below), he is entitled to receive a payment equal to his annual salary (at the then applicable rate) and has the right to continue to participate in all benefit plans made generally available by us to our executives during the agreement's initial term.

If a change-in-control (as defined in the employment agreement) occurs prior to the expiration of Mr. Agree's employment agreement and within three years after the change-in-control Mr. Agree's employment is terminated by us, Mr. Agree is entitled to be paid the greater of three times his then compensation, or his compensation to be paid over the remaining life of the employment agreement.

We may terminate Mr. Agree's agreement for cause which is defined to include (1) willful failure or refusal to perform specific reasonable written directives of the board of directors; (2) conviction of a felony; (3) dishonesty involving us which results in an unjust gain or enrichment at our expense; (4) moral turpitude which adversely affects our business; or (5) a material breach of the non-competition section of the employment agreement. In the event of Mr. Agree's termination for cause, he will forfeit his right to any and all benefits entitled to be received pursuant to his employment agreement (other than any previously vested benefits) following the date of termination. Mr. Agree's agreement may also be terminated if Mr. Agree dies or becomes disabled (as defined in the agreement). In the event of termination of the agreement because of Mr. Agree's death or disability, Mr. Agree (or his estate) shall receive for the longer of (x) the remainder of the calendar year; or (y) six months, Mr. Agree's salary in effect at the date of his death or disability.

The employment agreement with Mr. Howe, pursuant to which he serves as our Chief Financial Officer and Secretary, is identical to Mr. Agree's employment agreement, except that Mr. Howe's agreement provides for an annual base salary of $131,000.

Table of Contents

The employment agreement with Mr. Prueter, pursuant to which he serves as a Vice President, is also identical to Mr. Agree's employment agreement, except that Mr. Prueter's agreement provides for an annual base salary of $168,000. The agreement also entitles Mr. Prueter to receive as an additional bonus 2,500 shares of restricted stock each year.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The executive compensation committee determines compensation for our executive officers and administers any stock incentive or other compensation plans adopted by us, including the Stock Incentive Plan. The executive compensation committee believes that our compensation package must be structured in a manner that will help us attract and retain qualified executives and will align compensation of such executives with the interests of our stockholders. The compensation package currently consists of salary, bonus and long-term compensation in the form of stock options and restricted stock awards issued pursuant to the Stock Incentive Plan.

SALARY BONUS AND OTHER ANNUAL COMPENSATION

Salary and bonus amounts are determined by the executive compensation committee using a subjective evaluation process. In making determinations of salary and bonus amounts, the committee considers our general performance, the officer's position, level and scope of responsibility and the officer's anticipated performance and contributions to our achievement of our long-term goals. The base salaries for Richard Agree, Kenneth R. Howe and David J. Prueter were established pursuant to their employment agreements.

STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN

The executive compensation committee is responsible for administering the Stock Incentive Plan, which includes determining the individuals to be granted stock option awards or restricted stock grants and defining the terms of such awards, including the number of shares, exercise price, vesting schedule and expiration date.

The purpose of the Stock Incentive Plan is to provide compensation to persons whose services are considered essential to us. By linking this compensation to the market performance of our common stock and the growth in funds from operations we intend to provide additional incentive for officers and key employees to enhance our value and success and align the long-term interests of the officers and key employees with our interest.

The executive compensation committee uses a subjective evaluation process to determine whether an officer or key employee should receive a stock option grant or receive a restricted stock award and the number of shares to be granted or awarded to such officer or key employee. The committee has not set specific objective goals or standards that an officer or key employee must meet to receive a stock option or restricted stock award. The factors considered by the executive compensation committee include our general performance, the position, level and scope of responsibility of the respective officer or key employee and the officer's or key employee's anticipated performance and contributions to our achievement of our long-term goals.

We did not grant any options to purchase shares of common stock in 2003.

The foregoing report is given by the following members of the executive compensation committee.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

Management is responsible for the financial reporting process, including the system of internal controls, and for the preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with GAAP. Our independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements and expressing an opinion as to their conformity with GAAP. Our responsibility is to oversee and review these processes. We are not, however, professionally engaged in the practice of accounting or auditing, and do not provide any expert or other special assurance as to such financial statements concerning compliance with the laws, regulations or GAAP or as to auditor independence. We rely, without independent verification, on the information provided to us and on the representations made by management and the independent auditors. We held three meetings during fiscal 2003. The meetings were designed, among other things, to facilitate and encourage communication among the committee, management, our internal accounting department and our independent auditors, BDO Seidman, LLP. We discussed with BDO Seidman the overall scope and plans for their audit. We met with BDO Seidman, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations and their evaluations of our internal controls.

We have reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 with management and BDO Seidman. We also discussed with management and BDO Seidman the process used to support certifications by our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer that are required by the SEC and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 to accompany our periodic filings with the SEC.

In addition, the audit committee obtained from BDO Seidman a formal written statement describing all relationships between the auditors and us that might bear on the auditors' independence consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, discussed with the auditors any relationships that may impact their objectivity and independence, and satisfied itself as to the auditors' independence. When considering BDO Seidman's independence, we considered whether their provision of services to the company beyond those rendered in connection with their audit of our consolidated financial statements and reviews of our consolidated financial statements, including in its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, was compatible with maintaining their independence. We also reviewed, among other things, the audit and non-audit services performed by, and the amount of fees paid for such services to, BDO Seidman. The audit committee also discussed and reviewed with the independent auditors all communications required by GAAP, including those described in Statement on Auditing Standards (SAS) No. 61, as amended, Communication with Audit Committees, SAS 99 Consideration of Fraud in a Financial Statement Audit, and SEC rules discussed in Final Release Nos. 33-8183 and 33-8183a.

Based on our review and these meetings, discussions and reports, and subject to the limitations on our role and responsibilities referred to above and in the audit committee charter, we recommended to the board of directors (and the board has approved) that the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003 be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for filing with the SEC. We have selected BDO Seidman as our independent auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2004.

The committee reviewed and amended the audit committee charter in 2003. The audit committee charter was approved by the board of directors on December 8, 2003.

Respectively submitted on March 8, 2004, by the members of the audit committee of the board of directors.

Rules promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 require the Company to present a graph comparing the cumulative total stockholder return on its Common Stock with the cumulative total stockholder return of (1) a broad equity market index, and (2) a published industry index or peer group. The graph compares the cumulative total stockholder return of the common stock (NYSE: ADC), based on the market price of the common stock and assuming reinvestment of dividends, with the SNL Shopping Center REIT Index and the Russell 2000 Index. The graph assumes the investment of $100 on January 1, 1999.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND TRANSACTIONS

Sommers, Schwartz, Silver and Schwartz, the law firm of which Leon M. Schurgin, one of our directors, is a senior shareholder, acted as our counsel in various matters during 2003. We paid Mr. Schurgin's firm aggregate fees of approximately $295,000 during the year.

We lease our executive offices, located at 31850 Northwestern Highway, Farmington Hills, Michigan from the wife of Mr. Agree. Under the terms of the lease, which expires December 31, 2004, we are required to pay an annual rental of $60,000 and are responsible for the payment of real estate taxes, insurance and maintenance expenses relating to the building. Management believes that the lease terms are consistent with leases for similar properties in the area.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Upon recommendation of and approval by the audit committee, BDO Seidman, LLP has been selected to act as our independent certified public accountants during the current year. During fiscal

Table of Contents

2003, BDO Seidman served as our independent auditors and also provided certain tax and other audit related services.

Aggregate fees for professional services rendered to us by BDO Seidman as of and for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, were:

	2003	2002
Audit Fees	$ 56,500	$ 34,150
Audit-Related Fees
Tax Fees	$ 17,050	$ 16,650
All Other Fees	$ 800	$ 825

The Audit Committee approved all fees paid to BDO Seidman.

Audit Fees. Audit fees were for professional services rendered in connection with audits and quarterly reviews of our consolidated financial statements, review of and preparation of consents for registration statements filed with the SEC.

Audit Related Fees. No audit related fees were paid in 2003 or 2002.

Tax Fees. Tax fees related to professional services for tax compliance and consulting.

All Other Fees. All other fees were for general consulting services.

At its regularly scheduled and special meetings, the audit committee considers and pre-approves any audit and non-audit services to be performed by our independent accountants. The audit committee has delegated to its chairman, Farris Kalil an independent member of our board of directors, the authority to grant pre-approvals of non-audit services provided that any such pre-approval by Mr. Kalil shall be reported to the audit committee at its next scheduled meeting. However, pre-approval of non-audit services is not required if (i) the aggregate amount of non-audit services is less than 5% of the total amount paid by us to the auditor during the fiscal year in which the non-audit services are provided; (ii) such services were not recognized by the company as non-audit services at the time of the engagement; and (iii) such services are promptly brought to the attention of the audit committee and, prior to completion of the audit, are approved by the audit committee or by one or more audit committee members who have been delegated authority to grant approvals.

The audit committee has considered whether the provision of these services is compatible with maintaining the independent accountants independence and has determined that such services have not adversely affected BDO Seidman's independence.

A representative of BDO will be present at the annual meeting and will be provided with the opportunity to make a statement if such representative desires to do so. Such representative is also expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

OTHER MATTERS

As of the mailing date of this proxy statement, the board of directors does not know of any matters to be presented at the annual meeting other than those stated above. If any other business should come before the annual meeting, the persons named in the enclosed proxy will vote thereon as they determine to be in our best interests of us.
