PROPOSAL 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Edgar Filing: UNITED RENTALS INC /DE - Form DEF 14A

General

Our full board of directors has 12 members in the absence of any vacancies. Ten of our directors are elected by the holders of our common stock and D-1 Preferred, voting together as a single class, and two are elected by the holders of our Series C Preferred. The 10 directors that are elected by the holders of our common stock and D-1 Preferred are divided into three classes. Each class is elected to serve a three-year term. The terms of the classes are staggered so that the term of only one class expires each year. Absent vacancies, Class 1 and Class 2 would each have three members and Class 3 would have four members. There are currently 10 directors on the board and two vacancies. The vacancies are in Class 1 and Class 2.

Election of Two Class 1 Directors by the Holders of Our Common Stock and D-1 Preferred

Nominees

The term of the Class 1 directors will expire at the meeting. The current members of this class are Wayland R. Hicks and John S. McKinney. The board has nominated each of these directors to stand for re-election at the meeting as a Class 1 director. Each Class 1 director elected at the meeting will hold office until our annual meeting of stockholders in 2005 and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Voting

Unless a stockholder requests that voting of the proxy be withheld for any one or more of the nominees for directors by so directing on the proxy card, the shares represented by the accompanying proxy will be voted FOR election, as directors, of the above-mentioned two nominees. If any nominee becomes unavailable for any reason (which event is not anticipated) to serve as a director at the time of the meeting, then the shares represented by such proxy may be voted for such other person as may be determined by the holders of such proxy. Directors will be elected at the meeting by a plurality of the votes cast (i.e., the two nominees receiving the greatest number of votes will be elected as directors).

Election of Two Directors by the Holders of Our Series C Preferred

As described under "--Right of Holders of Series C Preferred to Elect Directors," the holders of the Series C Preferred, voting separately as a single class, currently have the right to elect two directors. The two directors currently serving on our board that were elected by the holders of the Series C Preferred are Leon D. Black and Michael S. Gross. All of the outstanding shares of Series C Preferred are currently held by Apollo Investment Fund IV, L.P. and Apollo Overseas Partners IV, L.P. (collectively, "Apollo"). The holders of the Series C Preferred have indicated to us that they expect to vote for the re-election of Messrs. Black and Gross as directors. Messrs. Black and Gross are affiliated with Apollo.

(1) May exclude perquisites and other personal benefits that are less than the level required for reporting.

(2) The number of shares of restricted stock awarded to each executive officer in 2001 is as follows: Mr. Jacobs (800,000 shares); Mr. Hicks (500,000 shares); Mr. Milne (470,000 shares); and Mr. Nolan (235,000 shares). These shares will not vest until June 5, 2011, subject to certain exceptions described below under "Vesting Requirements for Restricted Stock." The only shares of restricted stock held by our executive officers are those reflected in the table. The dollar value shown in the table with respect to an executive represents the number of shares of restricted stock awarded to such executive times the closing price of our unrestricted common stock on the New York Stock Exchange on the date of grant. If such dollar values had been calculated based on the closing price as of December 31, 2001, the dollar value for each executive would be: Mr. Jacobs ($18,160,000); Mr. Hicks ($11,350,000); Mr. Milne ($10,669,000); and Mr. Nolan ($5,334,500). The shares of restricted common stock have the same dividend rights as our unrestricted common stock.

(3) The other compensation for each executive in 2001 included the following: (i) Mr. Jacobs ($1,500 matching contribution under our 401(k) plan, $8,400 for 2001 car allowance and $27,300 for car allowance owing in respect of prior years); (ii) Mr. Hicks ($1,500 matching contribution under our 401(k) plan and $8,400 for car allowance); (iii) Mr. Milne ($1,500 matching contribution under our 401(k) plan, $8,400 for 2001 car allowance and $27,300 for car allowance owing in respect of prior years); and (iv) Mr. Nolan ($4,200 for car allowance).

(4) Includes moving expenses of $178,594.

Vesting Requirements for Restricted Stock

Edgar Filing: UNITED RENTALS INC /DE - Form DEF 14A

The restricted stock awards shown in the table above are not currently vested. The restricted stock held by an executive will vest on June 5, 2011 provided he is then still employed by us, or, if earlier, upon the first to occur of the following (except that clauses (3), (4) and (5) only apply to Messrs. Jacobs, Hicks and Milne): (1) a "change of control" (as defined in the agreement) occurs; (2) he dies, retires at or after age 60, or is permanently disabled while employed by us; (3) we terminate his employment without cause (as defined in the agreement); (4) he resigns after we fail to nominate him to continue as a director; (5) he resigns after we reduce his duties, authority, title or compensation; (6) he resigns after we direct him to relocate or substantially increase his travel; or (7) he resigns after Mr. Jacobs resigns and Mr. Jacobs' resignation is for one of the reasons enumerated in the preceding three clauses.

Options

The following table summarizes the number and value of all options held by the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table above. None of these officers exercised options in 2001. The information in the table is as of December 31, 2001.

Value Of Options at End of 2001

John N. Milne....	750,000	--	4,846,875	--
Michael J. Nolan.	515,000	--	3,147,688	--

(1) The options shown in this table were granted in either 1997 or 1998. There were no option grants to these persons subsequent to 1998.

Compensation of Directors

Directors who are executive officers of our company are not paid additional compensation for serving as directors. The compensation for the other directors is as follows:

Compensation For 2001. During 2001, the cash compensation for directors who are not executive officers was as follows: (i) up to $2,500 per day for each meeting of the board of directors that the director attended and (ii) $1,000 for each meeting of any committee of the board of directors that the director attended.

Edgar Filing: UNITED RENTALS INC /DE - Form DEF 14A

In addition, each of these directors was awarded 2,644 shares of restricted common stock on January 2, 2002. These shares will vest as follows: (a) on each anniversary of the grant date, one-fifth of the shares will vest as long as the holder continues as a director and (b) if the holder dies or is disabled while a director, all of the shares will immediately vest.

Compensation For 2002. The compensation for directors who are not executive officers was changed as of January 1, 2002. Under this new compensation arrangement, each of these directors will be paid:

- . $20,000 annual retainer for serving as a director;
- . for each board meeting attended in person or by telephone, $1,000 (up to a maximum of $5,000 per year);
- . for each audit committee meeting attended, (i) in the case of the chairman, $1,000 (up to a maximum of $4,000 per year), and (ii) in the case of each other member, $750 (up to a maximum of $3,000 per year);
- . for each other committee meeting attended, (i) in the case of the chairman, $750 (up to a maximum of $3,000 per year), and (ii) in the case of each other member, $500 (up to a maximum of $2,000 per year).

In December 2001, we adopted a deferred compensation plan for our non-employee directors. Under this plan, a non-employee director may elect to defer receiving the fees that would otherwise be payable to him. Deferred fees are credited to a bookkeeping account and are deemed invested, at the director's option, in either a money market fund or shares of our common stock. The director may choose between investing in unrestricted shares or restricted shares of our common stock. In the case of unrestricted shares, the shares are acquired at a price equal to the market value of the stock at the time of investment. In the case of restricted shares, the shares are acquired at a price equal to 83.3% of such market value. Restricted shares will vest as follows: (a) on each anniversary of the acquisition date, one-fifth of the shares will vest as long as the holder continues as a director and (b) if the holder dies or is disabled while a director, all of the shares will immediately vest.

Employment Agreements and Change-in-Control Arrangements

We have entered into employment agreements with each of our executive officers identified above. Certain information with regard to these agreements is set forth below.

Base Salary. Our executive officers are currently being paid base salaries at the following annual rates: Mr. Jacobs ($485,000), Mr. Hicks ($450,000), Mr. Milne ($335,000) and Mr. Nolan ($285,000). These salary levels reflect increases approved by our board, from time to time, and are above the minimum salary levels originally provided for by these agreements (except in the case of Mr. Hicks).

Bonus. The agreements do not provide for mandatory bonuses. However, the agreements provide that, in addition to the compensation specifically provided for, we may pay such salary increases, bonuses or incentive compensation as may be authorized by our board of directors.

Certain of the agreements provide that the employee is entitled to participate in certain specified insurance, retirement, compensation and benefit plans if such plans are made available to other specified executives of the company.

Term. The employment agreements with the following executives provide that the term shall automatically renew so that at all times the balance of the terms will not be less than the period hereinafter specified with respect to such executive: Mr. Jacobs (five years), Mr. Milne (five years) and Mr. Nolan (three years). The employment agreement with Mr. Hicks provides for a term extending until November 2003.

Termination and Severance. Under each of the agreements, we or the employee may at any time terminate the agreement, with or without cause. However, we are required to make severance payments to the extent described below.

The employment agreement with Mr. Jacobs provides that he is entitled to severance benefits in the event that (i) his employment agreement is terminated by us without Cause (as defined in the employment agreement), (ii) he terminates his employment agreement for Good Reason (as defined in the employment agreement) or because of a breach by us of our obligations thereunder, (iii) his employment is terminated as a result of death or (iv) our company or he terminates the employment agreement due to his disability. The severance benefits include (a) a lump sum payment equal to 13.51 times the sum of his annual base salary at the time of termination plus the highest annual cash bonus paid to him in the preceding three years (except the multiple is five rather than 13.51 if the termination is due to death or disability) and (b) the continuation of his benefits for the remaining term. The term "Good Reason" is defined in the employment agreement and includes, among other things, the assignment to him of any duties inconsistent with, or a diminution of, his position, duties, titles, offices, responsibilities, and status with our company or his removal from his current positions or any failure to reelect him to his current positions.

The employment agreement with Mr. Milne contains a severance provision that is the same as described above for Mr. Jacobs, except that the severance benefit is equal to (a) a lump sum payment equal to five times the sum of his annual base salary at the time of termination plus the highest annual bonus paid to him in the preceding three years and (b) the continuation of his benefits for the remaining term. The agreement with Mr. Milne also provides for a greater severance payment under certain circumstances as described in the second following paragraph.

The employment agreement with Mr. Hicks provides that he is entitled to a severance payment in the amount of $1 million in the event that his employment agreement is terminated by our company without Cause (as defined in the employment agreement) or he terminates his employment for Good Reason (as defined in the employment agreement). The agreement with Mr. Hicks also provides for a greater severance payment under certain circumstances as described in the following paragraph.

The employment agreements with Messrs. Hicks, Milne and Nolan provide that the executive is entitled to a specified severance payment if the executive resigns (or his employment is otherwise terminated) within 90 days after Mr. Jacobs terminates his employment agreement for Good Reason (which for this purpose means the assignment to Mr. Jacobs of any duties inconsistent with, or a diminution of, his position, duties, titles, offices, responsibilities, and status with our company or any removal of Mr. Jacobs from his current positions or any failure to reelect Mr. Jacobs to his current positions). The specified severance payment is equal to a specified multiple of the sum of (x) the executive's annual base salary in effect at the time of termination plus (y) the highest annual cash bonus (if any) paid by our company to the executive during the three-year period preceding the date of termination. The specified multiple used for calculating the severance payment is 9.655, in the case of Mr. Hicks, 10.91, in the case of Mr. Milne, and 8.67, in the case of Mr. Nolan.

The employment agreement with each executive also provides that if all or any portion of any payments or benefits which the executive is entitled to receive pursuant to the employment agreement, or pursuant to any other plan, arrangement or agreement in respect of our company or its affiliates, constitutes an "excess parachute payment" (as defined in Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code")), the executive is entitled to receive a payment sufficient on an after-tax basis to offset any excise tax payable by the executive pursuant to Section 4999 of the Code. Any payment constituting an "excess parachute payment" would not be deductible by our company.

Options. Each of the agreements provides that all stock options at any time to be granted to the executive will automatically vest upon a "change of control" (as defined in the agreement) of our company.

Other Provisions. The agreement with Mr. Hicks provides that at each annual meeting of the stockholders of our company which occurs during the term of the agreement and at which Mr. Hicks' term as director would be scheduled to expire, we will nominate Mr. Hicks for re-election as a director.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

None of the members of our Compensation/Stock Option committee has ever been an officer or employee of our company or its subsidiaries. Except as described below under "Certain Transactions," in 2001 none of the members of our Compensation/Stock Option committee had any relationship with our company requiring disclosure under applicable rules of the SEC.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

Mr. DeFeo is a director of our company and served as a member of our Compensation/Stock Option Committee and Audit Committee until March 8, 2002. He is also chief executive officer and a director of Terex Corporation ("Terex"). We have from time to time purchased equipment from Terex and may do so in the future. We purchased approximately $16.6 million of equipment from Terex in 2001.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation/Stock Option Committee (the "committee") of the Board of Directors of the Company is responsible for developing, and recommending to the Board of Directors, the compensation policies for the executives of United Rentals. In setting these policies, our goals are to: (i) offer competitive compensation that will attract and retain the type of high caliber executives that the Company requires in order to achieve its objectives, (ii) motivate executives to achieve the Company's business objectives and (iii) align the interests of executives with the long-term interests of the Company and its stockholders. In order to help us achieve these goals, we retained an independent consultant in 2001 to survey competitive compensation practices. We believe that there is necessarily an element of subjectivity in establishing compensation levels for the Company's executives and to date we have not followed specific objective performance criteria when establishing such compensation levels.

We believe that a significant component of each executive's compensation should be equity or equity-based compensation that provides for the type of long-term vesting described above under "Executive and Director Compensation--Vesting Requirements for Restricted Stock." This type of compensation directly links the executive's compensation to the long-term performance of the Company's stock. If the stock does well over the vesting period, the executive is rewarded and vice versa. This type of compensation also provides a strong incentive for the executive to remain with the Company. If the executive leaves before the award is vested, the award is completely forfeited.

The compensation paid in 2001 to each of the Company's executive officers consisted of base salary and restricted stock that is subject to the long-term vesting requirements described above. We did not award any cash bonuses in 2001 or 2000. We established the total compensation for each executive based on our evaluation of a number of factors, including the executive's position and responsibilities, service and accomplishments and present and future value to the Company.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

Edgar Filing: UNITED RENTALS INC /DE - Form DEF 14A

The following performance graph compares, during the period from December 18, 1997 (the date of our company's initial public offering) to December 31, 2001, the cumulative total return of our common stock to the cumulative total return of (i) the Standard & Poor's 500 Index and (ii) the Deutsche Bank U.S. Equipmental Rental Index. The comparison in the graph assumes the investment of $100 in our common stock and the aforementioned indexes on December 18, 1997, and the reinvestment of all dividends.

COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 16(a) OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires our officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of our equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Officers, directors and greater-than-ten-percent stockholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) reports that they file.

Based solely upon review of the copies of such reports furnished to us and written representations from certain of our executive officers and directors that no other such reports were required, we believe that during the period from January 1, 2001 through December 31, 2001 all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to our officers, directors and greater-than-ten-percent beneficial owners were complied with on a timely basis.
