Executive Officer Bonus Criteria for 2006. On February 23, 2006, the Board of Directors of the Company approved the Compensation Committee's recommended parameters for determining the cash bonus for the Named Executive Officers. James C. Smith, the Company's Chief Executive Officer (CEO), and William T. Bromage, the Company's Chief Operating Officer (COO), are participants under the Company's Qualified Performance-Based Compensation Plan. The Committee set goals for the CEO and COO primarily based on two performance metrics, with certain weightings attributable to achievement of each: (i) net income per share (adjusted to exclude all non-recurring items) and (ii) Return on Average Equity, using the median for the Company's peer group and measuring the Company's relative performance to the median. The target bonus for the CEO and COO is 100% and 80%, respectively, of base salary.

With respect to the Named Executive Officers, other than the CEO and COO, the goals are primarily based on three metrics, with certain weightings attributable to achievement of each: (i) net income per share (adjusted to exclude all non-recurring items); (ii) business unit financial objectives or line of business results, and (iii) Return on Average Equity, using the median for the Company's peer group and measuring the Company's relative performance to the median. For these Named Executive Officers, the target bonuses are a percentage of base salary ranging from 65% to 70%.

The actual bonus payments for any Named Executive Officer may range from zero to 200% of target bonus depending upon the financial performance of the Company. The Committee also has the discretion to award up to an additional 10% of target based on the performance achieved against annual strategic initiatives.

The Company will provide additional information regarding the compensation of the Named Executive Officers in its Proxy Statement for the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, which will be issued in Mid-March.
