Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 7, 2007, Genta Incorporated, (the Company), announced that on March 6, 2007 it had entered into a Supply and Distribution Agreement (the Agreement) with IDIS (IDIS) whereby IDIS will distribute two of the Company s oncology products, Ganite® (gallium nitrate injection) and Genasense® (oblimersen sodium) Injection, on a named patient basis. The global agreement covers territories outside the United States. Named patient distribution refers to the distribution or sale of a product to a specific healthcare professional for the treatment of an individual patient. IDIS, a privately owned company based in the United Kingdom, will manage the named patient programs for the Company.

The Agreement provides that the Company will supply the two products to IDIS on a consignment basis. The Company will be paid after sales are made by IDIS, which payment shall be based off of a monthly sales report received from IDIS. The Company will invoice IDIS based upon this monthly report which invoice shall be calculated based upon a price minus a fee credited to IDIS. The agreement also provides for distribution by IDIS of a limited amount of drug product free of charge to indigent patients. The Company intends that a percentage of proceeds from the named patient program will be used to support the compassionate use program. The Company has agreed to pay a nominal one time start-up fee for this program to IDIS, and the Company will pay IDIS a termination fee in the event it terminates either or both products within the first three years. Other financial terms of the agreement have not been disclosed.

Attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein as Exhibit 99.1 is a copy of such press release. A copy of the Agreement will be filed as an exhibit to the Company's upcoming quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2007.
