Amendment No. 1

On August 7, 2006, Intelligent Systems Corporation (the Company) filed a Current Report on Form 8-K reporting that on August 1, 2006 it completed the sale of its QS Technologies, Inc. subsidiary (QS). On September 6, 2006, the Company filed a Current Report on Form 8-K reporting that on August 31, 2006 it completed the sale of its minority ownership position in Horizon Software, LLC (Horizon). As part of each Form 8-K, the Company indicated that the pro forma financial information required under Item 9.01 would be filed no later than 71 days after the date of the respective Form 8-K. This Current Report on Form 8-K/A amends and supplements the Current Reports on Form 8-K filed by the Company on August 7, 2006 and September 6, 2006 to include the required pro forma financial information for both transactions, which have been combined as permitted by Article 11 of Regulation S-X.

Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

Sale of Business of QS Technologies, Inc. Subsidiary As previously disclosed on Form 8-K dated August 1, 2006, the Company completed the sale of the business and certain assets of QS to Netsmart Public Health, Inc. and its parent company, Netsmart Technologies, Inc. (the QS Buyer). The sale was effective as of July 31, 2006. The Company sold certain assets used in the QS business for a combination of $1.9 million cash, a promissory note of QS Buyer in the amount of $1.435 million and the assumption by QS Buyer of approximately $1.8 million in net liabilities of QS. The Company retained accounts receivable and cash of QS Technologies aggregating approximately $2 million. The note is subject to adjustment based on revenue and earnings of QS operations for the period from August 1, 2006 through December 31, 2006. In addition, the transaction provides for contingent payments of up to $1.45 million to be paid to the Company based on the attainment by the QS operations of certain levels of revenue and bookings in 2007. The sale transaction described above is referred to as the QS Sale.

Sale of Horizon Software Interest As previously disclosed on Form 8-K dated August 31, 2006, the Company completed the sale of its minority ownership position in Horizon to Horizon Software Holdings, Inc., an entity comprised of the founder and officers of Horizon (the Horizon Buyer), and together with the QS buyer, the Buyers) for a purchase price of $5.6 million. Simultaneously, the Company also sold its interest in an affiliate company of Horizon for $100,000. The Company received an aggregate of $2.85 million in cash and a promissory note of Horizon Buyer in the principal amount of $2.85 million. The sale transaction described above is referred to as the Horizon Sale.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits

(b) Unaudited Pro Forma Financial Information

The following unaudited pro forma financial statements give effect to the Horizon Sale and the QS Sale in accordance with Article 11 of Regulation S-X and are based upon currently available information and certain assumptions management considered reasonable under the circumstances. Based on the carrying value of the assets and liabilities involved in the QS Sale and the Horizon Sale, and the estimated costs and expenses incurred in connection with the sales, the Company anticipates that it will record a net gain of $2.6 million on the Horizon Sale and $4.9 million on the QS Sale. The unaudited pro forma statements of operations presented herein exclude these anticipated gains. The unaudited pro forma condensed balance sheet assumes the Horizon Sale and the QS Sale occurred as of June 30, 2006. Such pro forma information is based on the consolidated historical unaudited balance sheet data of the Company and QS as of June 30, 2006. The unaudited pro forma balance sheet is not necessarily indicative of the results that would have been reported had the Horizon Sale and the QS Sale actually occurred on that date, nor is it necessarily indicative of our future financial position. The unaudited pro forma condensed statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2006 gives effect to the Horizon Sale and QS Sale as if the sales had occurred on January 1, 2006. The unaudited pro forma condensed statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2005 gives effect to the Horizon Sale and QS Sale as if the sales had occurred on January 1, 2005. The unaudited pro forma financial statements provided herein do not include any amounts related to the $1.45 million in contingency payments for the QS Sale which may be paid to the Company in future periods since the amount of such payments, if any, is not determinable at this time.

The unaudited pro forma financial statements are based on and should be read in conjunction with, and are qualified in their entirety by, the historical consolidated financial statements and notes thereto of the Company.

Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Financial Statements

The unaudited pro forma condensed balance sheet presented herein assumes the Horizon Sale and the QS Sale occurred as of June 30, 2006. Such pro forma information is based on the consolidated historical unaudited balance sheet data of the Company and QS as of June 30, 2006. The unaudited pro forma condensed statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2006 gives effect to the Horizon Sale and QS Sale as if the sales had occurred on January 1, 2006. The unaudited pro forma condensed statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2005 gives effect to the Horizon Sale and QS Sale as if the sales had occurred on January 1, 2005. Based on the carrying value of the assets and liabilities involved in the QS Sale and the Horizon Sale as of the actual dates of each transaction, and the estimated costs and expenses incurred in connection with the sales, we anticipate that we will record a net pretax gain of $2.6 million on the Horizon Sale and $4.9 million on the QS Sale. The unaudited pro forma statements of operations presented herein exclude these anticipated gains.

The pro forma financial statements provided herein do not include any amounts related to the $1.45 million in contingency payments to the Company associated with the QS Sale which may be earned in future periods since the amount of such payments, if any, is not determinable at this time.

The unaudited pro forma financial statements are based on and should be read in conjunction with, and are qualified in their entirety by, the historical consolidated financial statements and notes thereto of the Company.

- a. To record proceeds received in the QS Sale consisting of $1,900,000 cash, a promissory note in the principal amount of $1,435,000 (of which $439,000 is classified as current Note Receivable and the remaining $996,000 is classified as non-current Note Receivable) and $340,000 included in Other Current Receivable representing unbilled accounts receivable of QS which the QS Buyer is obligated to remit to the Company when collected.
- b. To record assets and liabilities of QS transferred to QS Buyer.
- c. To record actual and accrued transaction related expenses consisting of legal and accounting expenses (approximately $54,000), employee incentive payments ($211,000) and other performance based contingency expenses ($250,000). Such amounts are based on management's current information and reasonable judgment. Actual expenses could be more or less than estimated.
- d. To record the pro forma gains on the QS Sale and the Horizon Sale. Actual gains on the sales will differ from the pro forma gains shown due to differences in the carrying values of the assets and liabilities at June 30, 2006 compared to the carrying values on the actual transaction dates.
- e. To record proceeds received in the Horizon Sale consisting of $2,850,000 cash and a promissory note in the principal amount of $2,850,000 due in 2007.
- f. To eliminate the carrying value of the Horizon investment as of June 30, 2006.
- g. To record adjustments to eliminate the historical consolidated results of operations of QS.
- h. To record estimated interest income related to the notes receivable of the QS and Horizon Buyers which would have been earned by the Company had the sale transactions been effective as of the first day of the respective period.
- i. To eliminate historical amounts of equity in the earnings of Horizon that had been accounted for on the equity method.
